

COLLEGE ARTS ELECTS OFFICERS

The second meeting of the College Arts Society was held Monday, October 11, in the garden. The most important business was the election of officers. Lillian Junas was elected President, Mary Jane Skoff Vice President, and Marlene Haegeley Secretary.

The Society plans to present four movies during the coming year. For this purpose a proposed budget was set up to be submitted to the Student Government Association.

ALMOST TWENTY QUESTIONS

Question of the week: When are they going to have a dance here?
Question of last week: Why don't they have a dance?
Question of two weeks ago: Do they ever have dances here?
Question from the first week of college: Will there ever be a dance here?

Answer of this week: Tonight in the lounge at 8:00 your question will be answered.

Another question of the week: What does F. P. stand for? Come to the dance tonight to find out.

Everyone is welcome.
There is no cost.
There are refreshments.
This dance is paid by your activities fees.

THETA SIGMA PI

The girls in the sorority have organized a hayride to be held next Friday night. A definite time and place have not been set as yet, but this is just a reminder to all you fellows, that the girls are looking for some likely prospects. So take heed!!!

COLLEGE COMMUNITY CHORUS

The College Community Chorus, directed by Miss Pearl Garbrick, held its fourth meeting Tuesday night, October 12, with a fairly large turnout. There is still an opening for a tenor, should anyone be interested. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm in the music room.