
THE ROVING REPORTER

This week I decided to ask the opinions of students on something which we have all pondered over at one time or another. "Do you believe in love at first sight?" and "Why?"

Don't say that I told you but - here are some of the answers I received.

Ilona Weltman: "Yes, definitely, the first time I saw a boy, I fell in love with the male sex."

Ed Birosh: "Of course, I do but I refuse to answer 'why' on the grounds that it might incriminate me."

Bernie Gromick: "It is a matter of individual taste. It would be best for people to fill out Mr. Krecker's psychological test before contemplating marriage."

Stan Gruszewski: "Naturally, if you don't know then, you'll never know."

Charles Romanoski: "Yah, I guess, it's just an unexplainable thing."

Ivan Michaels: "Yah, because it happens to me everyday."

T. J. Anthony: "No, I believe that love grows."

Evelyn Krusko: "Yes, because my mother recommended it."

Mary Rock: "Weeell." (Mary must have two on the string)

Ed Bradley: "No comment."

CHIPPY CHIPMUNK

I heard that "Bob M" is going to take "Barb" to F.P. tonight. I'll be seeing you.

On Thursday afternoon, Mr. Steel went for a ride with an insurance adjustor for the purpose of purchasing new windows for his Cadillac.

Two young fellows from Nuremberg, Larry Bott and Otto Donar, had a collision with the car traveling in front. What were you looking at boys???

Mrs. Smith was making-out with Dave Drasher and Ray Fritzing in the foyer of the main building on Thursday afternoon. She hasn't decided whose invitation to accept for the F.P. tonight.

Mr. Ward has been traveling by bicycle since his car was smashed.
