SOPHOMORE GIRL OF THE WEEK

Maryann Kowalick of Oneida, is my choice for the Sophomore Girl of the Week. She attended St. Gabriels High School where she was a cheerleader and also Snow Queen. Maryann has had her license for every bit of four months now, and she asserts she's an experienced enough driver to treat anyone up here at the Center to drive. What do you say Bradley????

SOPHOMORE BOY OF THE WEEK

Eugene Sentiwany, veteran of RD#1, Weatherly, is the Sophomore Boy of the Week. All the girls up here at the Center think Gene is a sharp dresser. Gene says he doesn't like small colleges; he prefers large schools, especially Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana, where he was a student before he transferred here. He intends to go back to Louisiana in February.

FRESHMAN GIRL OF THE WEEK

Theresa Bobowski of McAdoo, went to McAdoo High School. She was Miss McAdoo, also captain of the cheerleaders. Her passtimes are boys and more boys.

FRESHMAN BOY OF THE WEEK

David Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Gibson Sr., is the Freshman Boy of the Week. After graduation, "Gibb" worked for the Tompson Manufacturing Company. He enlisted and served four years in the service, part of this time spent in Korea as a tank gunner. His passtimes are his Chevy and women.

SPORT SHORTS

Until basketball season rolls around and our players are once more dribbling on the floor, this column will be devoted to other than sports. WATCH FOR THIS COLUMN.
