

COLLEGE ARTS SOCIETY TO SPONSOR FILM

The TITAN, a film on the works of the man who designed St. Peter's , Rome, and painted the Creation scenes on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel will be presented by the College Arts Society on Monday evening November 15, 1954, at 8 o'clock in the Main Lounge. All students and faculty members are invited to see how this movie's real gone camera work brings history to life and marble and bronze into motion.

PRE-VUE OF A COMING ATTRACTION

Come one, come all to the Ball. What Ball? The Thanksgiving Ball. When? November 19. Fellows, ask your girl now. Dance to beautiful music as you whirl the girls around the floor in their gorgeous gowns of rainbows colors. Don't delay! You paid for this already, so take advantage of it now. (This is the first reminder.)

SOPHOMORE GIRL OF THE WEEK

This week the Sophomore Girl of the Week is Mary Rock, who graduated from Foster Township High School of Freeland. Mary is in Med. Technology and her favorite subject is Chemistry. She loves to swim and hunt (men I think), but her main interest is airplanes. (certain pilots included)

SOPHOMORE BOY OF THE WEEK

Bob Yori of Freeland is the Sophomore Boy of the Week. He graduated from St. Ann's High where he was a pretty sharp basketball player. He was President of the Senior class and engaged in many social activities. The girls up here don't stand a chance 'cause Bob is claimed by a certain Freeland girl. So if any of you fellows have any love problems, see Bob, he's an old pro on love affairs.

FRESHMAN GIRL OF THE WEEK

Caroline Brobst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brobst, is the Freshman Girl of the Week. Now let's see what we have dug up on her. Carol belonged to the Home Ec. Club and the Y-Teens. Her pastimes are dancing, boys, boys, and more boys and clothes. As I understand it, she's enrolled under the Medical Course and wants to be a Lab Technician.

FRESHMAN BOY OF THE WEEK

John (Bamber) Marsicano is the Freshman Boy of the Week. Let's see what we know about him. He was President of the Senior Class in Hazleton High, fullback on the football team, and his hobbies are speed and women. He is enrolled here on the Hazleton National Bank Scholarship award. He wants to be an Electrical Technician.
