SOPHOMORE GIRL OF THE WEEK

For this weeks' Sophomore Girl we have chosen Mary Jane Skoff, a petite blond, BusAd lass, who hails from Conyngham and rates it top. Mary Jane was an active Student Council and Press Club member in West Hazleton High School, and has continued her participation in most of the activities here at the Center. Playing tennis, driving, having a good time and giving the latest scoop on chickens are "Janie's" main interests.

SOPHOMORE BOY OF THE WEEK

Carl Christopher, veteran of the Coast Guard, three cheers for ocean lovers, is a Hazleton boy. "Chris" was up here for two semesters before and is a BusAd student. Wherever there's a crowd, you're sure to find Carl since he enjoys talking and hearing the latest. A pleasing smile and a grasping personality spell "C H R I S".

FRESHMAN GIRL OF THE WEEK

Marguerete Churilla, a sweet, shy little girl, hailing from Hazleton, is our choice for Freshman Girl. Marguerete graduated from Hazleton High School among the top ten. She is now enrolled in Med. Tech. and is a whiz in Math and Chemistry. You can usually find her sitting and talking in the Cafeteria.

ROVING REPORTER

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: What do you think about not having corsages at the dance?

Theresa Bobowski - "I think the boys have enough expense and we can do without flowers."

Charlie Rogers - "I think the girls should have flowers."

Lois Carper - "We-ellll, I think it's all right but -----."

Jim Ditzler - "Good idea."

Mary Jane Skoff - "It doesn't make any difference to me."

Dale Walker - "I don't like the idea because I already bought my girl dandelions, but I guess it's the best thing knowing the boys don't have any money."

Joe Pavone - "It's a good thing because I'm a miser."

Caroline Brobst - "I don't like the idea. I think a girl should get flowers for a semi just because it's different from any other dance."
