

FENCING INTRAMURALS

In case anyone has been threatened with a clashing of swords and the bellows of 'touche', this will serve as an explanation to these mysterious actions. Once before there was some mention made of a fencing club being organized but since then the club has gained by leaps and bounds, increasing to approximately twenty members. The Parnassus Society has decided to classify this club as one of the intramurals and thus honor points are being awarded for club participation, and Capt. Carper is serving as both club organizer and advisor. There are two scheduled meetings a week at the ninth period on Tuesday and Thursday of each week, and usually there is quite a lot of fencing and instructing going on then. If anyone is interested or wants to still join, all he needs to do is come around to one of the meetings and join.

CHRISTMAS PARTY-DANCE TONIGHT

Tonight everyone (students, faculty and workers) is invited to attend our Christmas Party-Dance, which will begin at 8:00 PM in the Main Lounge. The Four Sharps will provide the music and refreshments will be served. A special holiday attraction in the person of Santa Claus will be highlighted. Come and enjoy the evening. Get in the Christmas Spirit.

CHRISTMAS SEMI NEXT FRIDAY

Have you your date for the Christmas Semi yet? If you haven't, remember you only have one week to get one. The Semi will be held at the Eagles' Ballroom from 8:00 to 11:00 PM, next Friday, December 17. Plan to attend the last social committee supported dance this semester and the last affair before the New Year.

BULLETIN BOARD ALTERATION

Have you noticed the alteration on the main lobby bulletin board? The division of the four main sections of FACULTY, BOOKSTORE, VETERANS, and ADMINISTRATION, makes it easier and quicker for one to see and read notices of interest to him. The alteration also livens up the board by the change of a plain board of scattered notices to a board of evenly spaced sections divided by black tape and printed topic signs.

REC HALL DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS

With Mrs. Kostenbauder supervising, a few students have spiritedly decorated the interior and exterior of our Rec Hall. The boys dragged in a tree which is setting in one corner of the room, and trailing pine and lights are draped along the dorways and windows. Hats off to these energetic students. We need more initiative around Highacres.
