

Mont Alto news highlights excite campus

BY JULIA RITCHEY
Editor-in-chief

Woodsmen Team

Penn State Mont Alto's Woodsmen Team competed in the John Palmer Inter-collegiate Woodsmen Competition at the Cradle of Forestry near Brevard, NC on Saturday, October 4. After traveling over 500 miles both ways, the team returned victorious. This was the first time in eight years.

After the eleven years of competing in this annual competition, they won the quiz bowl competition. The students competing on the Woodsmen Team were: Kevin Braun, Martha

King, Megan Strait, Mike Wagan, Mark Mizak, Brandon Brantner, Koby Cutchall, Mark Porambo, Severin Thierwechter, Ricky Hutton, Casey Johnson, Ethan Wall, and Phil Bietsch.

Women's Volleyball Team Currently, Mont Alto's women's volleyball team is in third place in the nation. Playoffs begin Saturday, October 18.

Team members include Beth Berger, Ashley Bierzonski, Alex He-nault, Prosche High, Alyssa Politi, Sara Re-plogle, Kelly Rootes-Murdy, Jenn Stremmel, Raina Walter, and Celena Woodal.

Mont Alto Soccer (Continued from Page 1)

Submitted by Sara Myers

All other photos submitted by Caite Mujsce