

Analyzing Horoscopes Cont. By Joshua Enriquez

They don't follow any fixed schemes and plans. They like to follow their own intuitions. They're very popular with friends. They may go out of the way to save a friend from trouble. They're always ready to forgive a wrong done to them. But they may not forgive a wrong done to their friends. They like to fight straight. They don't use any tricks.

Taurus (April 20th - May 20th):

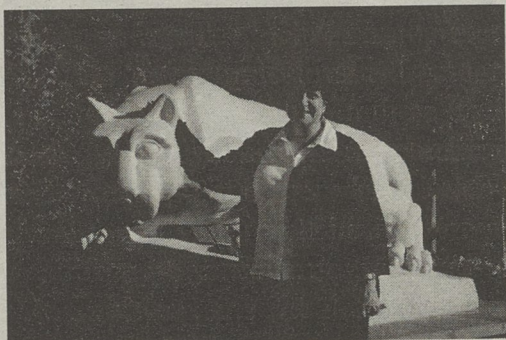

Taurus is an earthly sign ruled by Venus and symbolized

Bull. It's not surprising that they can be distinguished by their love of beauty and harmony in every aspect of life. They have very good imagination and spectacular powers supported by common sense. They're fond of hard work and they enjoy doing work to the core. Music is a fascination for them. They're capable of concentrating all their attention on a single aim and purpose. Their unyielding determination leads them to achieve their goals. They will fight for an injury done to them but they have no part in trickery, deception and underhand dealings. As soon as their enemy shows a sign of collapse, they instantly feel sorry for them. They have great receptive power. They're good hosts and very successful socially. They always get followers but they should guard against being swayed by other peoples' advice. They're often selected to take up responsibilities and they accept them even though it worries them. They're incapable to accept squalor and strife.

Gemini (May 21st - June 21st):

The star Gemini is symbolized by twin children - Castor and Pollux of Roman mythology. It is an airy sign ruled planet Mercury. They're very intelligent. They can penetrate deep into the root of any matter and analyze them. They also display a dual character. At one time, they're full of energy and enthusiasm but before long, a sudden change comes over them and they become cold and lethargic. In their relations with friends, they're mostly undependable. Sometimes, they insist that something is right when it is completely wrong. They absorb things so fast that at times, they miss out on any important and critical details, which are very essential. They're attracted to every thing that is modern. Old conventional ways bore them. They're always on the look out for new methods and ways of doing things. They're very clever in inventing things. A well-developed Gemini possesses artistic talent of high order.

Cancer (June 22nd - July 22nd):

This star is a watery sign symbolized by the Crab. The moon rules it. They're very sensitive, shy, hesitant, romantic and dreamy. They can be distinguished by their timid nature. Being very sensitive, they take criticism to their heart. They become upset by a general comment made by someone. At the same time, they respond with gratitude to appreciation. They don't tolerate interference in their affairs. They prefer to shoulder all the labor themselves and they work very hard. They don't open their heart to others. Jealousy makes them keep their worries to themselves. Cancers are often dominated by fear of the future and old age. This makes them hoard money and become selfish. They're unsuccessful gamblers. It's only the hard working nature that compensates for all the drawbacks in them.

Leo (July 23rd - August 22nd):

Leo is a positive fiery sign ruled by the sun. The Lion symbolizes it. People born under this star are usually courageous, dignified and gifted with leadership qualities. Their strong frame with broad shoulders and well-developed muscles can distinguish them. Leos are direct and open in their expressions. They express opinions with clarity. Their convictions are fixed early in their lives.

They don't change or modify them later. Leos are loyal to their friends and never leave them in case they fall into trouble. Their affection and sympathy are worth mentioning. They're straightforward in their dealings. They detest treachery and double-dealing. They're full of courage and fear has no influence over them. No matter how angry they are, they fight in a fair way. Leos have great ambitions and they surmount difficulties with their magnetic strength. They may sacrifice anything to achieve what they long for. In money matters, Leos are not usually gifted. Leos are always ready to share their wealth with others and they give money for charity.

Virgo (August 23rd - September 22nd):

This star is symbolized by the Virgin and ruled by the planet Mercury. The Virgo person believes in doing things precisely. They aren't carried away by fantasies. People who are impractical irritate them. The Virgo believes in doing things positively. They're full of purpose and good will. Sincerity, zeal and enthusiasm mark their working habits. They have excellent critical abilities. They analyze any problem and come up with solutions. Anything that is scientific, technological or practical arouses their interest. Given a chance, they become expert designers. They're great readers and any subject interest them. They have deep appreciation for the details of life. Basically, a Virgo is an uncomplicated person who views things clearly.
