SOCCER ACTION

The Delaware County Campus Soccer Team continued its winning ways with a 3-1 overtime victory over visiting Williamson Trade School. Earlier in the week, the Lions defeated Brandywine Junior College 7-0, after a 2-1 loss to Hazelton Campus. The team's Commonwealth Campus league record is 1-1.

Delco's Tibor Lehotay opened the scoring in the Williamson game. The score was then tied late in the first half. The teams battled to a scoreless second half, leaving the game knotted at one. Lehotay scored his second goal of the day (eighth of the season) two minutes into the first overtime period. Mark Gardener added an insurance goal early in the second overtime stanza for the 3-1 win.

Despite the victory, Head Coach Ron Case wasn't too impressed. "I think the game was a case of great improvement on the part of the Williamson squad, and possibly a little over-confidence on our team's part. Our passing game was off, but that was due in part to the (muddy) field conditions," he commented.

In one of this year's biggest games, Delaware County will be out to revenge last year's Commonwealth Campus Championship loss to Ogontz Campus. The Lion's host Ogontz this Saturday. Come out and support your team.

Penn State Drops Out of Top 20

Bowl dreams seemed to go down the drain as the Nittany Lions lost to Nebraska 42-17 September 29. The loss was the second of the season for Penn State. The Cornhuskers upped their record to 3-0.

It was the Lions' worst loss since a 49-11 setback by UCLA in 1966, and only the fourth time in Joe Paterno's 14 years as head coach that Penn State lost two games in succession.

"We got licked decidedly," said coach Joe Paterno. "We've got to make some moves," he added.

The Lions jumped off to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter - to be overshadowed by a 28-point outburst by the Cornhuskers in the second quarter, leaving the game out of reach.

Penn State defeated Maryland 27-7 for its 24th victory in the 25-game history of the Nittany Lions-Terps series.

The Nittany Lions defense, which allowed almost 900 yards and 69 points in losses the last two weeks, was a key to the victory. The Terps never made it past the 50-yard line in the first half.

The Lions' three touchdowns were results of Maryland fumbles on its own 2, 14, and 39-yard lines.

Matt Suhey rushed for 95 yards in 16 carries, moving past Franco Harris as Penn State's No. 5 career runner with 2,069 yards.

Football Hazards

The number of deaths from football injuries among high school and college students has declined in recent years, thanks to the protective helmet-facemask system worn by most players. But the effectiveness of the modern helmets has inadvertently created a new hazard. There's been a marked increase in broken necks, often resulting in complete paralysis.

"Coaches have developed playing techniques that use the head and helmet as a battering ram in blocking, tackling, and butting," says Dr. Joseph S. Torg of the National Athletic Head and Neck Injury Register at the University of Pennsylvania. Such methods, he notes, fail to consider the potential danger to the neck and spine.

There were 77 football deaths among nearly 1.3 million players from 1971 to 1975, compared with 86 deaths among 820,000 players from 1959 to 1963. But since 1971, the Registry has recorded 550 broken necks, resulting in permanent paralysis from the neck down for 176 of the victims.
