

Delco Intercollegiate Sports

The Delaware County Campus is represented by athletic teams in five intercollegiate sports. They are Men's Soccer, Men's Basketball, Women's Basketball, Coed Golf, and Coed Tennis.

Delco teams compete with Penn State Commonwealth Campuses as well as area schools, including Delaware County Community College, Cheyney State College, and Brandywine Junior College. In addition, each team is eligible for league playoffs and the Commonwealth Campuses Tournament at the end of the season.

The Athletic Department also sponsors intramural sports programs during the Fall and Spring Terms.

If you are interested in joining a team, watch for announcements concerning try-out dates. If not, check the schedules and come out and support Delco Sports.

For more information, contact Mr. Dan Doran, Delaware County Campus Athletic Director, in the physical education building or at (215) 565-3300, ext. 277.

Involvement on Campus

The Delaware County Campus presently has 19 University-recognized organizations. Any full-time student is eligible to join a registered University organization provided he meets the necessary requirements specified by each organization.

Representatives from campus clubs spoke during Freshmen Orientation yesterday.

Student involvement is an important part of life at a commuter campus. Your membership in an organization is an easy means of getting to know your fellow students.

The following is a listing of presently-active campus clubs and organizations and their faculty advisors. Watch for announcements concerning meetings and sign-up times for the club(s) in which you are interested. Get involved!

BLACK STUDENT LEAGUS (BSL) — The voice of the campus black population, this club sponsors programs of interest to the campus and community. Contact Mrs. Carolyn Senna Boswell or Mrs. Susan Ware, advisors.

CHEERLEADERS — Members promote school spirit at athletic events throughout the school year. Contact Dean Edward F. Linder, advisor.

CHRISTIAN INVOLVEMENT — Members explore religious beliefs, doctrines, and relationships.

Penn State Football

Lions To Face Colgate, Texas A&M

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Penn State opens the 1980 football season this Saturday, September 6. The Nittany Lions will take on Colgate in Beaver Stadium at University Park. Game time is 1:30 p.m. Colgate is one of two teams added to the Penn State schedule this year. The Lions will play for the first time at Missouri on October 4. Notre Dame, Boston College, SMU, and Alabama are included in the 1981 schedule.

Penn State and Colgate agreed to play the season opener one week earlier than originally scheduled.

"The earlier opening date will avoid any possible conflict with on-campus dormitory space during pre-season football practices," said head football coach and athletic director Joe Paterno.

In the season's second game, the Lions face Texas A&M away Saturday, September 20. Last year's contest ended in a 27-14 Penn State loss. The game will be broadcast by the ESPN Cable-TV sports network.

Both games can be heard on WNAR-Radio, 111 AM, on the Penn State Football Network.

NFL Picks PSU Seniors

Five Penn State seniors were among the first 69 players chosen at the annual National Football League draft in New York last Spring. A sixth was chosen before the close of the first day of the draft April 29. A seventh was drafted the next day.

Defensive tackle Bruce Clark went to the Green Bay Packers in the first round. The 1978 Lombardi Trophy winner was the fourth player selected overall. In the second round, defensive tackle Matt Millen went to the Oakland Raiders (43rd overall), fullback Matt Suhey went to the Chicago Bears (45th overall), and offensive tackle Irv Pankey was chosen by the Los Angeles Rams (50th overall). In the third round, linebacker Lance Mehl went to the New York Jets (69th).

Running back Mike Guman was also taken by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round. Wide receiver Tom Donovan, the seventh-leading psss receiver in Penn State History, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the ninth round the next day. Donovan was the ninth player selected in that round and the 230th player overall.

At Beaver Stadium

More Seats, New Policy

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Over 6,000 new seats have been added to Beaver Stadium at University Park for the kick-off of the Nittany Lions' 94th season of intercollegiate football. The total capacity of the stadium now exceeds 83,000 making it the seventh-largest in the country.

Students will be allocated an additional 1,000 seats in the south end zone. Some 20,900 seats are reserved for students.

For the first time since 1972, students will receive a single wallet-size pass when purchasing season tickets, instead of a separate ticket for each game. Eligible full-time students had until August 15 to purchase a season pass for the six 1980 home game at $21, three dollars less than individual game tickets. Last year, season tickets cost $24 for seven games, a savings of $4.

Public season tickets cost $66, an increase of $1 per game from last year. Individual game tickets cost $12, up from $10 last season.

Single game and date tickets for students went on sale September 2.

Last fall, Penn State averaged 77,414 fans for seven home games, the fourth-highest attendance average in college football.
