

FEATURES

CAMPUS NEWS BRIEFS

AWARDS CEREMONY

The Twenty-first Annual Awards Ceremony was held on Wednesday, April 20, 1988 in room 101 Main. Some of the outstanding award recipients are: The Walker Award: Philip L. Kurland, the Outstanding Adult Student Award: Patricia Ann Cape. There was a reception in the Main Building Student Lounge following the ceremony.

PHOTO CONTEST

The Camera Club on the Delco campus recently had a Photo Contest. The contest was open to all students on campus and had two categories: Color Photography, and Black and White photography. The Best of Show award went to Scott Melba and will be printed up in a calendar which will be produced by the Camera Club and sold in the fall. The winner of the Black and White category was Song You. Song You won all three places in the category

PICNIC

On April 13, the Penn State Delco campus enjoyed the second annual picnic given for the campus by Student Government Association for Spring Week. The entertainment for the picnic was provided by the first and second place winners of the Talent Show, held the previous Friday night, as well as a D.J.. There was also a variety of other activities to amuse picnickers, such as volleyball and frisbee.

SEMI-FORMAL

In short, the Penn State Delaware county campus spring Semi-Formal was a big success. This year's dinner dance was held on The Spirit of Philadelphia, a cruise ship that travels up and down the Delaware River. Philip Kurland, the Student Government Treasurer and organizer of the semi-formal reported comments: "The months of hard work and preparation have paid off tonight."

Linda Wahowski
Assistant Editor-in-Chief

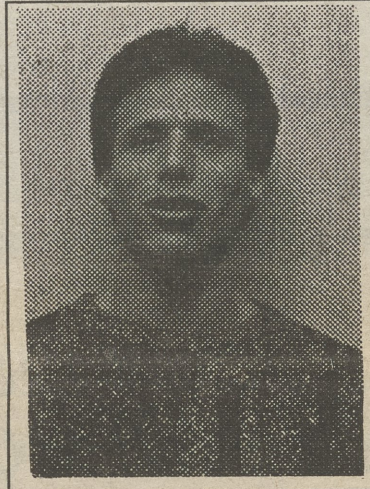

RESULTS FROM THE 1988-89 SGA ELECTIONS

ANDY HILT:
PRESIDENT

BASIA SOBCZYNSKI:
VICE PRESIDENT

RICH GALLO:
TREASURER

ROBERT KNEWSTUB: SEC-RETARY

AND THE WINNER IS...

Linda Wahowski
Assistant Editor-in-Chief
Despite the weather, the Second Annual Penn State Delco's Talent Show went off without a hitch on Friday April 8, 1988 in room 101 Main Building. The Talent Show, which was scheduled to be held outside in the library amphitheater, but moved inside because of rain, entertained an audience of over one hundred people. There was a variety of entertainment provided by the participants, ranging from hard rock and gospel to punk music. The winners of the show were chosen by a 3 judge panel of faculty and staff, and the first and second place winners were scheduled to play at the Spring Week Picnic on the following Wednesday. The winners of the Talent Show were: First Place, the band Pheonix; Second Place, the group Air, and Third Place went to The B-52's. An Honorable Mention went to Sinister Attraction. All of the winners received trophies for their achievements.

SPEAKING OF COMEDY...

by Linda Wahowski
Assistant-Editor In-Chief

Wilson and Ben Kurland were sponsored by the Student Government Association for the entertainment of the students. Of the three comedians, it was apparent that Rocky Wilson was the favorite of the audience. All in all, a good time was had by everyone.

Laughter abounded on Penn State Delco campus on April 8, as Three Comedians played to a standing room only audience in the Main Lounge. The comedians, Lee Felding, Rocky go camping.

Where trees

How would you feel
if they were careless in your house?
Please be careful in the forest.

SOCIAL SECURITY?
MANY PEOPLE ONLY KNOW HALF THE STORY.

Get the whole story from the free booklet, "Social Security, How it works for you!"

Write: Social Security
Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

