

Ethnic Celebrations Slated for Campus

The next few weeks will see a continuing number of Cultural Awareness activities and events at Delco. They are offered to promote an understanding of the diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds of the students, faculty, and staff here.

Native American and Hispanic cultures will be featured this month and next; then African and Asian/Pacific cultures will be featured during second semester.

Native American Day
 Wednesday, October 24, 1990
 12:30 PM - 1:20 PM
 Main Building Room 101
 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM
 Reception, Commons Building
 Large Conference Room

Hispanic Heritage Week
 November 5 - 9, 1990

Puerto Rican Day
 Monday, November 5, 1990
 12:30 PM - 1:20 PM
 (Room to be determined)

Mexican Day
 Wednesday, November 7, 1990
 12:30 PM - 1:20 PM
 (Room to be determined)

Central American & South American Day
 Friday, November 9, 1990
 12:30 PM - 1:20 PM
 (Room to be determined)

Delco students dig into a variety of tasty foods at the Ethnic Food Festival during Cultural Awareness Week.

Photo by: PATRICK KIM

— Halloween Surprise —
 On October 31 from 12:00 to 3:00 a palm reader will be foreseeing the future in the Lion's Den.
 For $1.00, you can have your palm read!

Delco to Celebrate UN Day Oct. 23

by Angela Deal

Before going any further, look around you. Notice the diversity among us, the various nationalities that surround us. Did you ever wonder what other nations are like? Assuming each of us has, we have some possible answers.

At Penn State Delco, our "Committee on Cultural Affairs" has organized a United Nation's Day. This event, to be just one of a few, is provided to enhance the diversity of our campus community. On October 23, Tuesday, the festivities will begin during the common hour, 11:30-1:00, in the lounge.

In addition to music, simple refreshments and activities, which will include world trivia questions similar to Jeopardy, the committee will be selling t-shirts. For approximately $5.00 you can buy one of these t-shirts, displaying a global PSU image, and at the same time contribute to this fundraiser which will benefit UNISEF, and therefore, children around the world.

T-shirts will be sold throughout the week or until they are gone. This does not mean, however, that you should not attend the United Nation's Day. Participation is crucial and will benefit our purpose to recognize diversity on campus.

The focus here is for Penn State as a whole to become aware of the diversity we are exposed to and take advantage of learning from this. From University Park, commonwealth campuses, such as ourselves, are handed strategies as "university tasks," through which we try to spread knowledge and make people aware of the diversity in our world and more specifically, our campus. To make this event as effective as possible, students, faculty and staff alike should attend and see for themselves what it is that Penn State University is so concerned about.

What have you got to lose? See you there.

'Cram & Jam' Offers Help

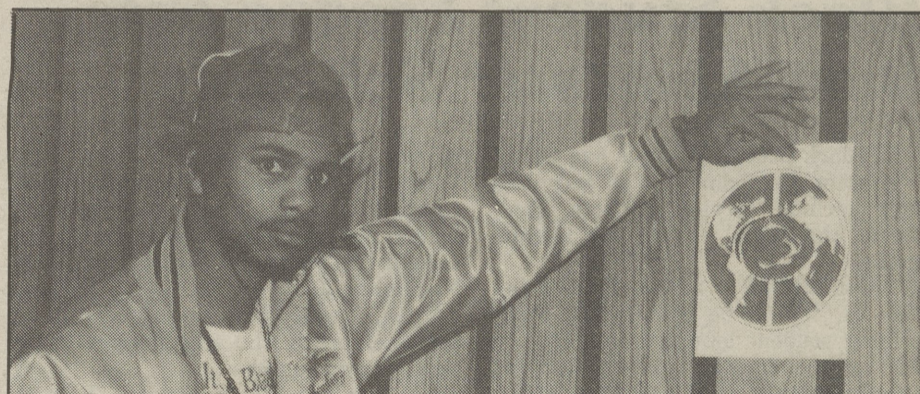

Mark your calendar now! Take advantage of the Cram and Jam dates coming up, especially if you missed the first session in October. Circle Friday, November 3 and Saturday, December 8.

These dates have been selected to offer you help when you most need it, at the end of the tenth and fifteenth weeks of the semester. At the November Cram (2-6PM in the main lounge), faculty and peer tutors will offer mini-workshops on studying, taking notes, memorizing, taking tests, and time management.

The December Cram (2-9PM in the Learning Center and Main Lounge) will offer last minute assistance in preparing for exams. It will end with a "Jam," during which students can relax with food and music.

Circle these dates now.

Art student Greg Branche displays his Nittany Lion peace logo chosen for the United Nations t-shirt to be on sale next week.

Photo by: DIANA MICIRI

HALLOWEEN PARTY
 OCT-26 (8-11 PM)
 IN THE LION'S DEN
 2.00 $ / PERSON
 D.J. ! FOOD ; MUSIC ! FUN!

HAYRIDE & BONFIRE
 FRIDAY-OCT-19
 5:15 PM, LINVILLA
 ORCHARDS
 4.00 $ / PERSON

SEE CAMPUS AMBASSADORS
 FOR TICKETS AND INFO.

SADD Sponsors Awareness Week

by Angelique Gilkin
 SADD President

Driving drunk is a serious problem, and we all need to be aware of it before we can solve it.

This year October 14 - October 20, is recognized as National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week. In keeping with tradition, SADD is sponsoring some events during this week. On Oct. 15 from 12:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m. we are having "movie day" in the main lounge. The tentative movies include "Strange Brew," "College Spirits," and a home movie. Mrs. Touchstone, Tammy Zampogna, and Gretchen Gatchel are working on a workshop on date rape. This will be held on the nineteenth of October in the main lounge during common hour. Come and enjoy these events.

As President of SADD, I also want to invite you and your suggestions to our meetings. Our next meeting is on Wednesday, October 10, 1990 at 12:30 in the Lion's Den.

Thank you for your help and concern.

CHAT 'N CHEESE

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29 and
 TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30

6-8 PM, Student Lounge, Main Building

PLEASE JOIN US and
BRING A FRIEND

Sponsored by:
 The Adult Student Organization
 The Office of Continuing Education
 The Office of Student Programs and Services