Food

The Ritz Carlton Philadelphia - Anne Rosenzweig, head chef and co-owner of the New York East Side gem, Arcadia, will be the guest chef during the tenth anniversary of the city's The Book and the Cook celebration. Chef Rosenzweig will create scrumptious menus for dinner on Friday, March 18 and lunch on Saturday, March 19, 1994.

In addition, the 1993 U. S. World Cup Pastry Team will present a sinfully delicious and indulgent Chocolate Seduction Sunday Brunch on Sunday March 20, from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Expect mountains of chocolate and sweets, including a life size sculpture created completely from chocolate, on display in the Grand Ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton. For more information, contact Errin Cecil-Smith at (215) 563-1600.

Music

Peco Energy Presidential Jazz Festival is a feast that will delight even the most devoted jazz lover. Six headline concerts and more than 100 Jazz events at various venues around the clock and city are scheduled from February 17-21. Miriam Makeba and Hugh Masekela are among the many stars performing. The festival includes something for everyone: brunches, teas, workshops, artifacts, jazz for kids, jam sessions, poetry and the African-American Marketplace among others. Many of the events are free. For further information call Michelle Bouie at (215) 636-3411.

Theater

The historic Hedgerow Theater in Rose Valley, presents the gripping American classic "View from the Bridge" by Arthur Miller, running through March 12. Miller's play deals with the tragic circumstances affecting a family when a longshoreman must come to terms with his misplaced affection for his adopted niece, as she falls in love with an illegal immigrant he is helping to harbor. Directed by Obie award winner Louis Lippa, "A View from a Bridge" runs Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m., Sundays at 2p.m. Tickets are $15. Discounts for students, seniors, and groups. For reservations and information, call (610) 565-4211.

February's the Month to Say What's In Your Heart

Rich Graham,

Happy Valentine's Day! Don't throw any more pens and keep your head out of the plants! Guess who!??

Dear Girls Basketball Team,

I regret that there's not enough of me to go around. So take a number and I'll be yours. From #34

Dear Karen,

Ever since you asked me where the rest rooms were, I have not stopped thinking about you. Always informing you, The Booth Man

Rob H.,

I just want you to know that I love you Big Bunches! And I wouldn't have anyone but you for my Valentine! Love, Nicole

To Bootsie, Juliet, Gigi, Niki, Mimi, Seathia, Duckie, Pipe, Tiger, & Jody: Happy Valentine's Day, with love.

From your two favorite girls, Emily and Gina

My Dearest Rita,

Ever since I cast my eyes on you, I've fallen madly in love with you. Will you be mine? Love, Shawn "Softy" Cordes

A big kiss on Valentine's Day to all the basketball guys, from all the basketball girls.

Love always, VS

To the tall cute guy with the golden mop of curls:

I've seen you around campus and I love the hair. Is it a perm? I prefer the hat off.

Emily,

The past three months together have been a blast. I hope we're still together next Valentine's Day. Love, Gina

Vu,

You don't know me, but I know you. I'm in your Chem 17. Can you guess who I am? Guess who?

To the Fabulous Skiing PennStaters:

Thank you all for the great memories at Smugglers Notch and Montreal. Hope to see you all skiing next year. Jeannie

Happy Valentine's Day, J.S. I'm sure it will be fun getting to know you (If you give me the chance). G.B., H 2 T

Mike,

I found a couple of teeth and thought they might be yours. SMILE! Happy Valentine's Day!! Love, The Toothfairy

Mattia, Tiziana, and Tina D.,
