

Entertainment

Delco students perform dance from India at International Day in the Student Lounge.

Photo by: WES TOMLINSON

A Truce Negotiated In DeBella-Stern Radio Feud

By Carolyn Castelli

Did you ever think that you would be listening to John DeBella on the radio again, after what Howard Stern did to him? What is more ironic, did you think that he would be working on the same radio station as Howard Stern?

Well, it is true. Even though these two had been fierce enemies before, DeBella swallowed his pride and is now working on the same station as Howard. Stern years ago pledged to beat DeBella in the morning show ratings and did just that, through the use of his tasteless ridiculing and harassing. Stern forced DeBella's formerly top-rated morning show, The Morning Zoo, off the airwaves, and most listeners thought Stern had forced DeBella out of radio forever.

After being a guest on Howard's show, DeBella admitted to Howard that he had won, and that he would just like to work in radio again. Then on Monday, November 14, he became the afternoon-drive man on the station 94.1 WYSP. He will be on the air every weekday from 2 to 6 p.m.

DeBella's new show is simply called The John DeBella Show. It will feature only him and no sidekicks, like his previous show.

Free Attractions at Philly

By Kewana Walker

Winter break is slowly approaching as the fall semester comes to an end. Christmas time is here and is bringing with it, lots of fun and excitement. There is more you can do than just sitting at home watching your favorite reruns. You can go spend your days and evenings down Center City.

Take a stroll down Market Street East sparkling with 140 lighted trees, dazzling decorations, and brilliant banners. Every Wednesday evening from now until the 28th of December the street comes alive with festive streetfront entertainment from 5:00pm-8:00pm. With Bands, Choirs and Radio stations including: WIOQ, WPEN, WMGK, WXTU, WYXR, WRTI, WDAS, WJJZ, and WMMR.

On Wednesday evenings, parking meters are free after 5:00pm, and after 6:00pm in restricted rush hour and no parking zones. Also, after 5:00pm on SEPTA Regional Rail Lines coming into the city are $2.00 round trip. After 4:00pm all SEPTA Regional Rail Parking Lots are FREE. The new Philly Phlash Bus is $1.00. THIS IS ONLY ON WEDNESDAYS.

The following is an feature of holiday attractions schedule:

"A Christmas Carol", will be showing at Stawbridge & Clothier, 8th & Market Streets, 4th floor. Saturday, November 19 thru December 31, Monday - Saturday 10:00am - 7:00pm, 8:00pm on Wednesdays, Sundays Noon - 5:00pm. Admission FREE.

"The Enchanted Colonial Village", will be showing at The Atwater Kent Museum, 15 south 7th street, presented by Mellon PSFS. Saturday, October 29 - Saturday, December 31, Monday - Saturday 10:00am - 4:00pm, till 8:00pm on Wednesdays, Sunday 12:00pm - 4:00pm. Admission is $2.00 for adults, $1.00 for children under 18. FREE admission Saturday morning till noon.

Delco campus invaded by hundred of seagulls moving inland from the coast to avoid the onslaught of the winds whipped-up by Hurricane Gordon.

Photo by: WES TOMLINSON

Music Highlights

BMU Records R&B Hit

By Kia Walker

The hot new single from the Jason's Lyric movie soundtrack is climbing up the charts. "You Will Know" performed by BMU (Black Men United) is a must hear. This is an excellent song. It is well written and well sung. It sends a positive message to black males. It was written by D'Angelo and Luther Archer, and produced by Brian McKnight.

R&B entertainers from all over came to participate in the BMU group singing: Gerald Levert, Brian McKnight, Aaron Hall, H Town, Boys II Men, Tevin Campbell, El DeBarge, R Kelly, Tony Toni Tone, Keith Sweat, Christopher Williams, Silk, Stokley of Mint Condition, Portrait, Al B. Sure, Damion Hall, Lil' Joe of the Rude Boys, Intro, DRS, After 7, Usher, Sovory, D'Angelo, and Lenny Kravitz on the guitar.

Brian McKnight picked who he wanted in the group and who he wanted to sing solos. Though everyone did not get a chance to sing a solo, there will be more songs coming out, so everyone will eventually get the chance to do a solo part.

On another note, Gerald Levert's latest singles, "I Just Can't Help Myself," which was originally on the Strapped soundtrack, an HBO original movie done by Forest Whitaker, and "I'll Do Anything To Fall In Love," are just two of the most beautiful songs out. They give a feeling of warmth and togetherness. Anyone who hasn't heard these songs yet should do so right away.

Dr. John Ousey, Associate Professor of Earth Science, recently performed on his euphonium with the sixty piece Chester County Band.

Photo by: WES TOMLINSON

Check Out New Album Releases

By Norman Castiello

Has dial flipping on your radio just worn your fingers out? Or has listening to the same old song, ten times in one hour, have you just turn the radio off and whistle? Well if it has, some hot musicians have new tracks just released.

May we suggest the following recent album release:

1. Pearl Jam - On Vinyl
2. Bon Jovi - Cross Road
3. The Cranberries - No Need To Argue
4. Aerosmith - Greatest Hits
5. Eric Clapton - From The Cradle

As of now, the only concert scheduled is Aerosmith on December 10 at the Philadelphia Spectrum. However, the concert is almost a sellout.

Movie Review

'Interview With A Vampire' Does Real Justice to Source

By Rob Servian

Finally, a movie that does the book it was derived from, justice.

Interview With the Vampire, based on the book by Anne Rice, is an incredible movie. The audience is captured in the screen, into the world of the vampire.

The movie stars Tom Cruise as Lestat and Brad Pitt as Louis. It opens with Louis about to conduct an interview with a reporter (played by Christian Slater) about his life. The movie runs chronologically through the ages which Louis lived through. It depicts trials and tribulations of being a vampire. Louis recalls specific times, people, and places which contributed to his growth as a vampire.

Tom Cruise acts sparingly in the movie but holds an important part. He was the beginning, the father if you will, of Louis' dark life. Cruise played his role brilliantly.

The movie takes an unexpected twist at the end that offers definite sequel potential. I rate this movie 3 1/2 stars out of 4, two thumbs up!