

First Friday is not to be missed

By Phillip Yi

Lion's Eye Staff Writer

First Friday is a unique cultural event in Philadelphia and one of the city's most popular evening escapes. Held the first Friday of each month, from 5 PM to 9PM in the art galleries of Old City, rain or shine, this arts community's "open house" brings city dwellers and suburbanites, contemporary arts and antique collectors, aficionados of classical and contemporary design, and theater and performance buffs.

The welcoming informality of First Friday, with member organizations and galleries of the Old City Arts Association hosting receptions and exhibition openings, attracts crowds of casual browsers as well as buyers. Free hors-d'oeuvres and wine are offered. All galleries are open to the public.

First Friday is always a festive event as Old City's quaint streets are filled with people strolling about. The many area restaurants offer a wide variety of eating experiences from simple meals to elegant, fine dining.

The City of Philadelphia suspends on-street parking regulations during First Friday hours, except in safety zones. In addition, several parking lots are convenient to the Old City Cultural District.

She Said: Cruel

Throughout the ages the art of revenge has been taught to audiences around the world. In 1988 another version of the classic novel emerged as Dangerous Liaisons starring Michelle Pfeiffer and Glenn Close. However no one has had the courage to create the movie at such a demented and twisted level as Kimble.

For all of those anger stricken vixens out there waiting for their moment of glory and revenge, Cruel Intentions can get you started on your journey of vengeance. But beware, the trained vixen with a cute face known as Kathryn did, in the end, got what she deserved. So watch, take notes, and learn how not to get caught.

movie lacks warmth and realism. The plot is interesting but is overshadowed by the details of the relationships. If you really want to see this movie, wait until it comes out on tape.
