

Eye on THON

Patricia Hillen's class is taking advantage of a sunny day. These students got some fresh air and instruction at the same time on the picnic tables on the quad.

Junior Ed Rich looks on as Sophomore George Daniels throws the football to his friend on one of the first warm days of the semester. Students and teachers alike were enjoying the warm weather on this day.

SPRING HAS SPRUNG

See related story and photo ... Page 4

Photos by
Meredith Becker

Sophomore Pradeep Kulkarni sets the volleyball to his friend outside of the commons building on March 27. Students were taking full advantage of the warm weather which reached upwards of 65 degrees.