

Eye on Campus

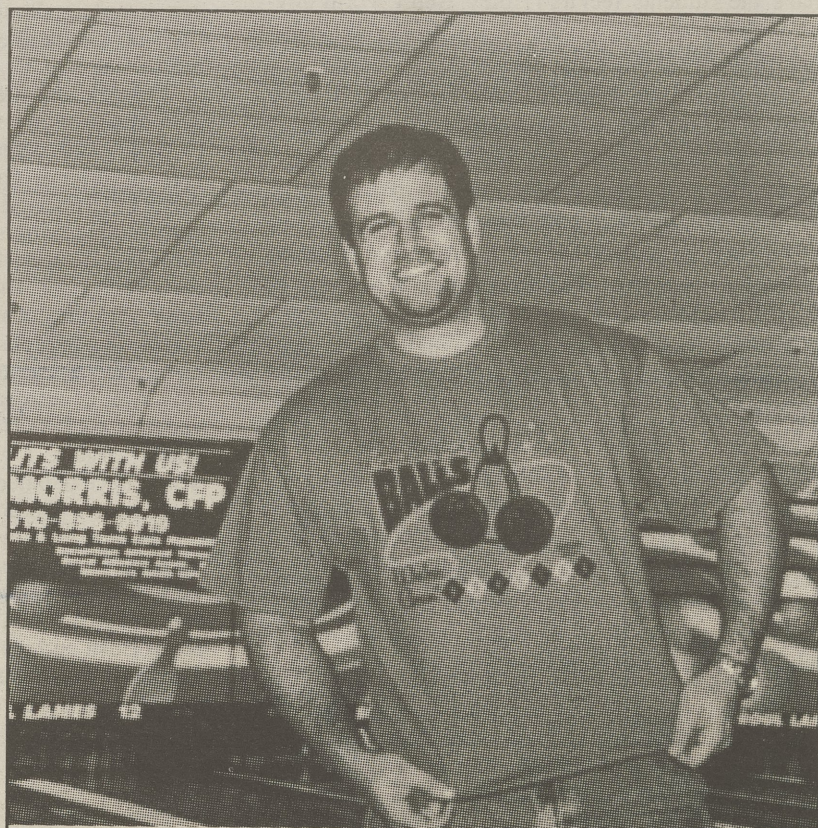

Matt Rodenbaugh, along with many other Penn State Delco students, bowls for the campus league every Wednesday night at Sprowl Lanes. He high fives his teammates after a great frame.

Jennifer Rufo shows off her great form as she throws a ball down the lane. Even late at night, she's still full of energy, ready to go, cheering on her teammates and friends. The league offers students and faculty a chance to get to know one another outside of school.

RIGHT UP THEIR ALLEY

Photos by
Meredith Becker

"Grab your balls, we're going bowling!" Mike Giordano proudly displays his team shirt during one of the many nights of competition. Smiles abound as friends get together to unwind after their busy days.