

Eye on Campus

QUIET PLACE TO STUDY? BOOK IT

All right, so you've tried the library, all the computer labs, the lounges, the gazebo, the benches and even just a spot on the grass. You still can't find just the silence and serenity you need to study for finals. There's a place barely a mile from campus and if these pictures don't tell you you could find the solitude you need there, you're not trying. It's Ridley Creek State Park, and it's an untapped resource for PSU Delco students.

Photos by Jeff Huber

