

archives

PSU Delco hockey team rolling up an impressive record... Page 8

The Lion's Eye

Vol. XXXVI, No. 5

Penn State University, Delaware County

November 23, 2004

The Fun of Fall Week

SGA hosted a number of events last week — Fall Week — designed to have students get together and have some fun. Last Monday was the Wing Bowl, which The Lion's Eye's own Gerry Dungan won by devouring 28 wings in five minutes. Tuesday, Reigning Starz, the campus talent show, took off, resulting in a tiebreaker win between tap-dancer Nairobi Cold and singer Matt Kelly. Wednesday, students got together to play poker, go fish and other card games to win prizes like a snowboard and a DVD player. Thursday was Multicultural Day. Students were able to taste food eaten in other countries while being entertained by the Delco dance team, Delco gospel choir, Dr. James Symmons and others. During a fashion show, students and faculty members dressed in clothing from other countries. Friday was club night, at which everyone got their groove on. The week was a huge success, according to the SGA, which issued thanks to the campus for for turning out.

Photos by Sarah Gallatig and Matt Kelly
 Among the sights that made Fall Week the blast it was, were, clockwise from upper left, eager and bloated participants in Wing Bowl; Penn State Delco's Gospel Choir at Multicultural Day; Quinetta Wilson at Reigning Starz; Crystal Bowhall also at Reigning Starz; and Katie Dejewski dealing cards at Casino Night.

INSIDE	Class of the Month..... Page 2	Editorial..... Page 6
	Where is Christmas?..... Page 3	Guest Column..... Page 7
	Computer Guy..... Page 4	Student Profile..... Page 7
	Entertainment..... Page 5	Basketball..... Page 8