Spring is here ...

On campus, a full week of celebration

Spring Week was lovely, thanks to the beautiful weather.

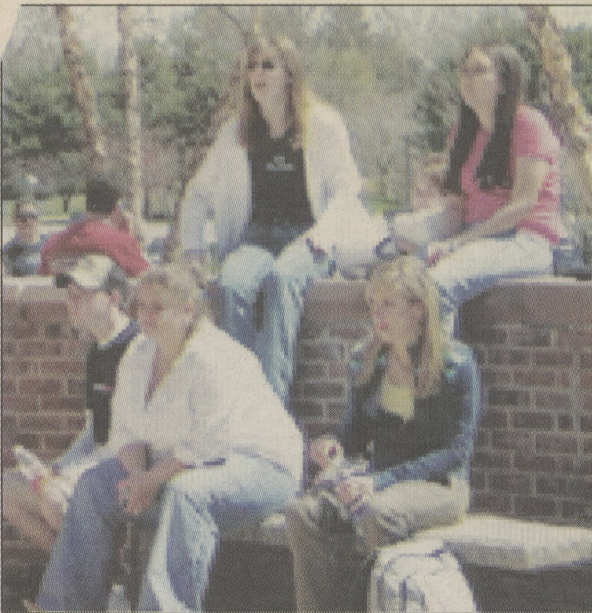

Events were well attended and students seemed to have a good time. The week kicked off last Monday with the challenge of gluttony called Wing Bowl. The competition was fierce but Nairobi Goldstein triumphed by devouring 33 Wings. But it was not just a man's event. Nikki Ferrell triumphed among the women.

Tuesday was the Reigning Starz talent show won by cover band DUL, featuring Carlo Luciani, A.J. Santini, and Gerry Dungan.

Devin Regan was the reigning star Wednesday night, winning the Texas Hold'em tournament.

Thursday was "Rock the Vote," with performances by Jennifer Rufo, Frank Biscotti, Saint Mort and Delco alum John McManus.

Spring Week finished Friday with live music and free burgers and hot dogs at the outdoor grill.
