MAKE YOUR CHANGE COUNT FOR CLEAN WATER

Did you know that nearly one billion people do not have access to clean drinking water?

Penn State Brandywine alumnus Aldo Magazzeni and his non-profit organization, Traveling Mercies, have helped more than 50,000 people, primarily in Afghanistan, receive clean, safe water.

BUT YOU CAN HELP TOO.

Penn State Brandywine students in Dr. Phyllis Cole's WMNST 400 class would like to support Aldo's work by raising $7,000 to help install a water system in a village in Afghanistan.

If every Brandywine student or member of the faculty and staff contributed just $3.50 - the cost of a two bottles of water in our America - we could provide a whole village with clean drinking water.

New Look of the Campus Van!

This Brandywine van is primarily used to transport students to club-activity-related events such as CCSG, THON, Student Leadership conferences, etc.
