

16th Penn State Brandywine

LiTap<sup>a</sup>LooZ<sup>a</sup>

LITERARY FESTIVAL

Tuesday, April 3, 2012

11:30 to 1:00+ in the Tomezsko Classroom Building Lounge

FEATURING POET

MIHAELA MOSCALIUC

We anticipate the campus literary magazine, Penn in Hand, will be distributed at the event.

The LiTap<sup>a</sup>LooZ<sup>a</sup> Festival invites one and all to PARTICIPATE in the "OPEN MIKE" READING.

Bring your own creative works and plan to read, recite, chant, narrate, rap, sing, croon, intone, declaim! Or just come to cheer and stomp for our guest readers and your friends.

One cannot cheerfully eat poetry or prose: there will be refreshments.

Mihaela Moscaliuc's first poetry collection, Father Dirt (winner of the Kinereth Gensler Award), was published by Alice James Books in 2010. Her poems, reviews, translations and articles appear in numerous important poetry journals, including The Georgia Review, Prairie Schooner, TriQuarterly, New Letters, Poetry International, Arts & Letters, Pleiades, Connecticut Review, America, Absinthe, West Branch, Mid-American Review Interculturality and Translation, and Orient and Orientalisms in American Poetry and Poetics. She has taught at Monmouth University and Salisbury University and currently directs the low-residency MFA Program in Poetry and Poetry in Translation at Drew University.

APRIL IS NATIONAL POETRY MONTH

Sponsored by Penn in Hand with the English Department