

Spring Events

April 10

Blue and White Society, THON and Lion Ambassadors present Spring Fling. A day of fun outdoor activities, pretzels and water ice and enjoying nice weather with friends from around campus

11:30 to 1:30

On the Campus Lawn

April 14

Town Talk sponsors Super Sunday in Media. This huge festival is held twice a year in the spring and fall. Lots of vendors, arts, crafts and food.

9:30 to 5:00

State Street and Veterans Square, Media Pa

April 17

History and Mystery Cinema

Troy (2004)

History and Mystery Cinema will be showing the 2004 remake of the cult classic Troy, based on an adaptation of Homer's great epic. Before the movie, guests can drink and mingle while wandering the galleries, and explore Classical Greek objects from the Penn Museum Collection. During the movie, enjoy live commentary by Dr. Peter Struck, Associate Professor, Classical Studies, and his sidekick graduate students. Free with Museum admission. For more information, call 215.898.2680.

Film starts at 7:00 pm

Penn Museum

3260 South Street

Philadelphia, pa 19104

April 21

A Philadelphia International Festival of the Arts Event

Rome's Birthday

This year's Philadelphia International Festival of the Arts asks, "If you had a time machine..." what would you do? Penn Museum celebrates Rome's birthday (April 21, 753 BCE) by inviting guests back through time to explore Italy during the ancient Roman Empire with an afternoon of activities. Visitors can enjoy gladiatorial bouts, try on helmets and shields, and reenact battle formations, as well as enjoy music, food, and arts and crafts. Enthusiasts can also visit the Museum's permanent exhibition, Worlds Intertwined: Greeks, Romans, and Etruscans, and learn more about the history of Italy, from Etruscan to Roman civilizations, by viewing over 1,000 artifacts including marble and bronze sculptures, jewelry, gold and silver coins, metalwork, glass vessels, and more. Free with Museum admission. For more information, call 215.898.2680.

Sunday 1-4pm

Penn Museum

3260 South Street

Philadelphia, pa 19104

April 24

Leadership Recognition Night 2013

In honor of Penn State Brandywine's 2012-2013 Student Leaders

5:00 pm in the Lion's Den

RSVP to Ronika Money-Adams
rmm29@psu.edu

April 27th

Historic Sugartown Day

Historic Sugartown is a quaint, rural 19th-century crossroads village in beautiful Radnor Hunt country, Malvern, PA. Every year this village comes alive to celebrate spring with traditional artisans and crafts, colonial magician, 19th-century kid's games & activities, period re-enactors, birds and falconry, dog agility trials, hayrides, retriever water sports, great food, music and more. A fun filled day for kids and adults. Yesterday's traditions, today.

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

$10/car

690 Sugartown Road

Malvern, Pa 19355

April 28

65th Annual Newtown Square Fire Co Auxiliary Flea Market

Hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn, doughnuts, soft drinks, and more... Come out for a great day of treasure hunting, lots of bargains to be had: Books, tools, clothes, a variety of collectibles. There will be plenty of unique odds and ends for sale. Something for everyone!

9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Newtown Square Shopping Center

3590 W Chester Pike

Newtown Square, Pa 19073

May 4th and 5th

Annual Strawberry Festival

Celebrate spring with a weekend of strawberry treats from cream-topped strawberry shortcakes, freshly baked pastries and crispy strawberry fritters to pies overflowing with the luscious fruit, chocolate-dipped berries, strawberry smoothies, Pennsylvania Dutch butters and preserves and fresh strawberries. Enjoy strawberry pie-eating contests, live entertainment and the region's finest artisans demonstrating and showing their crafts.

10 am to 6 pm, Peddler's Village, Rt 202 and Rt 263, Lahaska, Pa 18931