

Voice of Lancaster Farms

INTERESTING

YORK, Pa. — Enclosed find check for my subscription for one year to your interesting paper. — Armor F. Frey.

VERY INTERESTING

HOLTWOOD, Pa. — Enclosed find check for one year subscription to Lancaster Farming. We think it is a very interesting paper. — Clarence W. Armstrong.

THANK YOU

LANCASTER — Enclosed find money for which please enter my subscription for one year to Lancaster Farming. I think the paper very interesting. Thanking you for the early boxholder copies. — Mrs. Clarence W. Wineholt.

LOOKS FORWARD TO LF

CONESTOGA — You will find enclosed check for 52 weeks of Lancaster Farming as it seems like a pretty good paper, from what I have seen in the boxholder copies. I am looking forward to receiving it. — William Flick

SUCCESSFUL FUTURE

SPOKANE, Wash. — Your interesting paper came this morning — the second we have received from Lancaster County, Pa. We want to compliment you on the neat paper. "Lancaster Farming." Looks like it has a very successful future. Good luck and greatest success for your new venture.

Winter slipped up on us without warning, and never in the history of Spokane have we had it so cold this early. It was 11 below zero here for several days, then we had a snow that broke

FEEDS 40. CATS.

DesPeres, Mo.—Mrs. Caesar Venegoni, who has approximately forty cats in her home here, is thinking of moving to a 40-acre farm, because there's a move afoot in this community to pass a law limiting the number of pets in any one home.

the cold but made the streets very dangerous for driving. — Mrs. Chester G. Arnold.

(Editor's Note: — 11 below — Drrr Mrs. Arnold is the widow of Arthur B. Overman, a pioneer commission man and many times president of the Spokane Live Stock Exchange. She herself was an early schoolteacher in Idaho, moving from the midwest, arriving on the job by horsedrawn stage in the 20th Century)

CHALLENGE

NEVADA, Iowa — Congratulations on your newest adventure — Lancaster Farming. It is interesting. Keep the paper rolling as I know you always win a challenge. — Mrs. Margaret Blackledge.

BOOMS WITH ENERGY

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Honstly, this second issue of Lancaster Farming is without equal. It fairly booms with energy. I especially adore the beautiful picture on the front page. Next I spotted the Women's Page. Am so anxious to try the Broccoli Casserole. — Mrs. L. Newton Kinder

TERRIFIC

MANHEIM — Your publication is "terrific" We wish to be included on your list as charter subscribers. Wishing you the best for future years — Cassel's Mill, Inc., by C. Eugene Cassel.

GRATEFUL

KENNETT SQUARE — I am very grateful to you for the lovely picture and story that you put in your Lancaster Farming. I think that this is a very nice paper and your interest of coverage was good. It looks like the chicken business got on your front page too. It looks like the farm had brooder houses, shelters, etc. That's good for the poultry industry. I hope that you will stop around to see us when you are this way again. I am enclosing $1.00 as a charter member for the coming year so we will receive your nice paper. — Lois M. Logan, Pennsylvania Flying Farmers Queen, L. L. Logan Poultry Farm and Hatchery.

Chester Delaware Poultry Meeting, Election Dec. 15

New directors will be elected and several changes in bylaws will be made at the annual meeting of the Chester-Delaware County Poultry association Dec 15.

The meeting will be a dinner at the Coatesville YMCA, according to L. L. Logan, Kennett Square, president.

Directors will be elected to replace those whose terms expire, and all members are urged to attend, especially in view of by-law changes. This will be the first anniversary meeting of the group organized last December.

Principal speaker will be C. M. Kessler, assistant sales manager of Allied Mills, Chicago, well known in the poultry field.

The high level of personal debt held threat to future.

Reserve Champ at Timonium

Two Lancaster Farming region men here are shown with the Eastern National Livestock Exposition reserve senior champion female, Erica Eileen GRA. On the left is Elbert (Bud) L. Jenks, manager of Boudnot Farms, Chester Springs, Pa. and behind the high ranking Angus female is Fred Frey, Jr., Quarryville, who assisted Boudnot in caring for and showing Angus at Timonium. — Lancaster Farming Photo

Proteins Needed In Dairy Ration, Purdue Advises

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Protein supplements are needed in most winter dairy rations, reports G. A. Williams, extension dairyman at Purdue University.

Williams says these supplements give better results at lower costs when fed in mixtures than when fed separately.

When good quality legume hay is used with either corn or grass silage, a grain mixture containing 10-14 per cent digestible protein meets the needs of most cows. Such a mixture can be made up of 500 pounds corn and cob meal, 200-pounds of ground oats or wheat bran, and 100 pounds of a protein-rich feed such as cotton seed oil meal, linseed oil meal, soybean oil meal, or a 32-34 per cent protein commercial feed. One pound of this mixture should be fed for each 2½ to 5 pounds of milk produced, depending on the breed and size of the cow. If low quality roughages are fed, more supplement will be needed.

Costs studies show that when grain feeding is carefully adjusted to dairy milk production, the cost of concentrates will make up about 25 per cent of the total cost of producing milk. When unnecessary amounts of grain are fed, however, the cost of concentrates may run as high as 40 per cent of the total cost.

Brazil plans no change in its coffee price policy.

RUGGED WINTER.

Dublin, N. H.—According to the Old Farmer's Almanac, the oldest periodical in America which is still continuously published in the same name and original appearance, the coming winter will be "as severe as any of the Twentieth Century." Beginning with week November

September copper sales were the highest since May, 1953

weather, bad storms and blustery cold succeeding one another—with very few mild spells or thaws and no real winter break until late March is forecast

"BEST BUY"

Winter Prices at

L. H. Brubaker

Lancaster, Lititz R. 3

Pick up a good used New Holland at Big Winter Savings!

You can get your best buy in a completely reconditioned New Holland baler or forage harvester right here! If you've been waiting to pick up a New Holland at a good price, you can really do it now. Because right now you get the tremendous benefit of our amazingly low winter prices.

For dollar values you can't beat one of these reconditioned New Hollands. They're really "best buys" both in price and condition.

SPECIAL FALL CLEARANCE
1 each Model "77", "76" & "75"
N. H. Balers
1 Case Wire Tie
1 Forage Harvester, row crop & pickup

Call or see us today

L. H. BRUBAKER

350 Strasburg Pike
Lancaster, Pa.

ATTENTION FARMERS

If farmers file income tax by Feb. 15, 1956 they need not file a declaration of estimated tax.

Two options are given by which to determine amount of income which is subject to the self employment tax.

With us, Income Tax is a Profession; not a side line

John M. Slater and Associates

124 South State Street, Ephrata, Pennsylvania

Dial 3-2370; if no answer, try 3-2406

VINTAGE LIVESTOCK AUCTION

Phone Gap

67R3

Sales Every Tuesday Night at 6:00 P. M.

Come To Our Christmas Party
On December 20th

TURKEYS, HAMS

And Other Gifts to be Given Away

ALL FREE

EVERYONE INVITED

RECONDITIONING AND REPAINTING CAN PAY BIG DIVIDENDS!

Add to the life of your tractor and equipment—and boost the price you'll get when you trade. Let us give you an estimate. We think you'll be surprised at how low our figure is.

Special Off-Season Prices!

Conestoga Farm Service

QUARRYVILLE, PA.

PHONE 282