DOUBLE EXPOSURE — Newspaper cameraman Ed Schultz didn't shoot for overdeveloped cheeks when he took pictures of neighborhood youngsters, but that's what he got. He's shown at home as another photographer recorded Schultz's convalescence from the mumps.

ARCTIC TOWNS

One result envisioned by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd from the current Antarctic expedition could be the beginning of permanent human habitation of that icy continent. He thinks that eventual establishment of small "villages" populated by perhaps 500 persons, is a distinct possibility.

WHEN IT RAINS . . .

HOLYOKE, Mass. — After being involved in a minor traffic accident, a 12-year-old boy went to a nearby doctor's building for treatment and left his bicycle outside. When he returned, he found someone had stolen his bike.

Beatitudes Are a Way Of Life

THE first portion of the Sermon on the Mount contains the Beatitudes and the words of Jesus concerning spiritual values and relationships, for those who would follow the ways of the Kingdom of Heaven.

The prevalent beatitudes of our modern world are very different from the Beatitudes of the Sermon on the Mount.

These secular beatitudes of the life surrounding us say:

"Blessed are the efficient and the self-sufficient—Blessed are the strong—Blessed are the self-assertive—Blessed are the rich and the successful—Blessed are those who are free from trouble, and so on.

Was Jesus right when He put the blessings His way?

"Blessed are the meek; Blessed are the poor in spirit; Blessed are the pure in heart; Blessed are they that mourn; Blessed are the persecuted; Blessed are those who hunger after righteousness."

These things do not seem to have much to do with the welfare of today's world. Yet, the more we reflect on them, the more we must realize that our very welfare depends on Jesus Beatitudes.

Take out of a nation all the unselfish, all the kind and considerate, all who are sympathetic and helpful.

Cancel out all who place their values above all self interest and profit.

What do you have left but the morally and spiritually bankrupt?

Without a leavening of those who live by the Beatitudes, what a world we would live in!

ST. NICHOLAS — Garbed as was his namesake, a fourth-century bishop of Asia Minor, "St. Nicholas" rides through the streets of Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Feast of the good saint, traditional bringer of gifts to Dutch children, is celebrated on Dec. 6. For centuries, Christmas was purely a religious holiday in Holland, but the gift-giving custom has since spread to embrace Christmas Day.

TWIN COINCIDENCE "DEAD-EYE DOT"

WELEETKA Okla. — Mrs. Dorothy Hendrix, deputy treasurer of Okfuskee county, has a new nickname — "Dead-Eye Dot," in recognition of her pistol-shooting ability. Mrs. Hendrix found a wolf prowling in her backyard, grabbed her .22 caliber pistol and plugged the animal five times.
