egg, vanilla and salt. Bring to a boil, let boil a few minutes until a little thick. Set aside to cool.

Crumbs

Two cups flour
One cup brown sugar
One-half cup lard
One teaspoon baking soda
One teaspoon cream of tartar
Pinch of salt
Mix like pie dough. Four cooled juice in unbaked pie crust. Sprinkle crumbs on top. Bake in slow oven 350 degrees. If oven is too hot, the juice will boil out. This makes four small pies or three large ones.

Salad time is coming up soon, and when the gardens grow, there will be salad greens aplenty. Meanwhile, from Honey Brook comes another recipe, for

CELERY AND APPLE SALAD

One package each of lime and lemon Jello
Dissolve
One medium stalk celery cut in small pieces
Eight or ten apples, peeled and diced
One-half cup nutmeats
Add apples and celery and nuts to Jello, let set until firm, unmold on lettuce.

Back to the meat line, here are some easy foreign recipes from the American Meat Institute:

The seasons coming up will be busy. How about sending along menus you choose for quick meals, household hints that will make work easier when it's gardening time, or why not share your tips on flower and vegetable gardening?

Send them along to Lancaster Farming, Women's Page, Quarryville. We'll appreciate it. That's about it for now until next week and we'll see you then.

The President has called for moderation and patience toward the South on the segregation issue, but "with a determination to make progress."

Church of Holy Sepulchre

CHAPEL OF THE ANGEL: A symbol of Easter morn, when the stone was rolled away from the tomb and Christ arose from the dead, is the Chapel of the Angel, through which you pass to enter the Tomb of Christ in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Old Jerusalem. The tiny Chapel of the Angel, lit by fifteen hanging lamps, contains a large stone, said to be the one rolled away by the angel whose "countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow." (Matthew 28:2-4) From this small chapel you stoop to enter the inner Tomb marked by a simple marble slab. An oblong shaped stone structure, standing directly beneath the Great Dome of the church, houses the two shrines. Six candles, as tall as the shrine itself, stand guard outside the entrance door and above it eight candles burn. The principal religious ceremonies and processions of Holy Week in Old Jerusalem center about this Tomb, the holiest shrine of Christendom, in the Bible Land of Jordan.

Farm Women 12 Meet April 28, No. 3 Guests

Farm Women Society 12 met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Estelle Mowrer, Highville, with Mrs. Frances Elsen co-hostess. The president, Mrs. Olive Sigman, was in charge. The Scripture was read from John 20:1-20 by Mrs. Fanny Mae Witmer, who led charge of devotions, followed by all members praying the Lord's Prayer and pledging allegiance to the Flag.

Roll call found 28 members and three visitors present. There were cards of thanks read from recipients of donations and flowers and cards to the sick. Sarah Husson gave a report from the Needle Work Guild. Members received pieces of material to be hemmed for the Guild. The President reported 1,195 cancer dressings and 11 shirts made in 1955 and 1956 so far.

The April meeting will be in the Creswell School on the 28th. Society 12 will entertain Society 3. Five dollars was given to the Cancer Society and $500 to the Crippled Children's Society.

The bus trip to Philadelphia to see "Cinerama Holiday" was planned and paid for. The group attended March 29. The speaker was Mrs. Esther Haines, a teacher at the Paradise Elementary School, who spoke on "Parents and Children." The talk was very interesting and gave much to think about—both our duty to the child and to the teacher.

Farm Women 23 Visit County Home April 19

Members of the Society of Farm Women 23 will visit the Lancaster County Home Thursday, April 19, to distribute cup cakes and ice cream.

Meeting Thursday, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Charles Frey, Conestoga, the society made final arrangements for the society's Easter banquet March 31 at Hostetter's Banquet Hall, Mount Joy, where they will entertain their husbands at a ham dinner. Mrs. Paul Funk was hostess at the most recent meeting.

Twenty-five baskets were made for the Elizabethtown Crippled Children's Hospital, with Humpty-Dumpty eggs as the center of attraction.

The next meeting of the Society will be April 24 at the home of Mrs. Roy Funk, when a book review will highlight the program.

Farm Women 15 Make Donation To Two Agencies

Society of Farm Women No. 15 held the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Warren Smith, Upper Oxford Township. Mrs. Tom Halladay, Miss Sara Holmes and Mrs. John Ogden were assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Robert Weicksel, president, conducted the meeting, with Mrs. Ogden in charge of Devotions. Roll call was answered by giving names of interesting places to dine.

The treasurer reported all bills paid and $7 sent to the American Red Cross, $15 to the Cancer Society and $15 to the Crippled Children's Bureau.

Ways and Means committee announced that it would have a food stand at the sale at the Ferree farm on April 3. Proceeds will go to the Welfare Fund of the Society.

Mrs. James T. Hastings gave a report on the trip to the flower show on Wednesday, March 14. Thirty-three members, friends and relatives attended the exhibition.

Harry Sloat, Associate County Agent, Extension Service, showed a colored film on "Vegetables You Should Know," for one's garden. The pictures showed methods of gardening. A question-and-answer period followed.

The next meeting will be held on April 19 at the Union Presbyterian Church, when the Society will entertain societies 17 and 20 at 2 p. m.

The Smith home is an old farm house, over a hundred years old. It is of frame construction, except for the end of the room now used as a living room, which is of brick, three feet thick. This holds the fireplace, heating ovens and deep ovens for baking.

The family has modernized the home recently, completely redecorating the interior, with new paint paper and refinished floors.
