Flying-Farmer Queen Crowning At Butler Fair

By ERNEST J. NEILL
Mrs. Gail Kimmel — wife of a Lawrence County flying farmer at Enon Valley — will be crowned Queen of the Pennsylvania Flying Farmers during the Butler Farm Show, on Thursday, Aug 16, tentatively

Mrs. Kimmel was named Saturday at a meeting of the state association at the Berks County Airport, Reading, a meeting where attendance was curtailed by murky weather that found most of the pasture pilots arriving by auto. Two farm planes from the western part of the state did fly in, landing in the hazy drizzle that grounded others from the eastern part of the state

A Lancaster Countian, Mrs. Charlotte Huber, wife of Flying Farmer David Huber at Peach Bottom, was a runnerup in the contest for queen, with Mrs. Robert B. Jackson, Jr., of New Galilee. The Hubers were unable to attend the meeting.

Among those at the meeting was Allan Bowen of London, England, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Logan of Kennett Square. Mrs. Logan is the retiring State Flying Farmer Queen

Plans were announced to hold the July meeting at the Francis Kiestler resort near Perth, Ontario, Canada. The Kiestlers are active in Pennsylvania Flying Farmer Activities, operating a farm at Mifflinburg. July 7 has been set as the date, with a meeting in Syracuse where planes will assemble to go through Canadian customs at the same time

Farm Show Participation
Mr. Logan, vice president of the state association, announced plans that have been discussed for PFFA participation in the 1957 Pennsylvania Farm Show. A meeting was held with Dr. William L. Henning, state secretary of agriculture, and other Farm Show officials, to outline plans. The Flying Farmers requested the opportunity for their Queen to participate in the events, a request was placed for display space, and a Flying Farmer meeting has been planned for the Wednesday of Farm Show Week.

Russell M. Pisor, state president, Portersville turkey grower, urged consideration for a Pennsylvania Page in the National Flying Farmer magazine. Mr. Kimmel was named delegate to the national Flying Farmer Convention in August at New Orleans.

Among interesting statistics presented on Flying Farmers included the fact there are more than 10,000 members, representing some 2300 aircraft nationally. One member of the NFFA owns two and one-half million acres in the United States and Alberta

At lunch, the PFFA and guests were luncheon guests of the Reading Aviation Service at the Municipal Airport. Here they saw displays of newest aircraft, new products, participated in forums and heard lectures. Attendance here was curtailed somewhat by bad weather. This was the Seventh Annual Maintenance and Operations Meeting.

Among those in attendance were Allan Bowen, London, England; Douglas and Bette Moore, Bridgeport; Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Pisor, and Judith Ann, Portersville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnold, Birdsboro; Mrs. Gail Kimmel; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bichey of Petersburg, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gehman, Faye, Betty Lou and LaVerne, of RD Barto; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace; Lydia Uber of Slippery Rock, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Loan, Kennett Square.

H. Wallace Cook, Jr. County Agent Aide For Chester County

H. Wallace Cook, Jr., of Elkton, Md., a 1956 graduate of the University of Delaware where he majored in animal husbandry, has been named to the agricultural extension staff of the Pennsylvania State University as assistant county agent, effective June 4.

Dr. H. R. Albrecht, extension director, today announced that Mr. Cook will be assigned to Chester county where he will be associated with County Agent R. A. Powers, Jr., with offices in the courthouse annex at West Chester.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallace Cook RD2, Elkton, Mr. Cook has been active in the Grange, 4-H Clubs, and Future Farmers of America. During his senior year in college he was radio farm reporter, president of the Agriculture Club and a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. He was a member of the dairy and poultry judging teams and competed in public speaking contests. In athletics he was a member of the varsity cross country and lacrosse teams.

He has had nine years of experience in 4-H Club work. In 1953 he served with the Delaware National Guard.

In Chester county he will be stationed in Southeastern Pennsylvania extension region of which H. R. McCulloch, assistant director of agricultural and home economics extension, has supervision.
