Increased Milk Prices Likely, Blanford Says

NEW YORK — Increased above those for the last half of farm milk prices for the last 1955, the Administrator said. Six months of the year are fore-cast by Dr. C. J. Blanford, Market Administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area. Milk production, however, is expected to be slightly under that for last year.

Uniform prices are paid directly to dairy farmers by handlers and are determined by the uses made of all of their milk delivered to plants approved for the New York marketing area, Dr. Blanford explained. Fluid prices, however, are never paid directly to dairy farmers. Handlers account to the New York pool at those prices and also pay for other milk according to the use they make of it.

Production Off 14%
Prices paid to farmers — the uniform prices — are expected to be above those for last year in each of the six months, according to the forecast. This will also be true of fluid prices except for one month. Total production in the six months will be off about 1.4 per cent. The increase in uniform prices is forecast at 14 cents for July, 17 cents for August, 27 cents for September, 12 cents for October, 28 cents for November, and 19 cents for December.

Revisions Likely
The increase in Class I-A prices is forecast at 31 cents for July, 18 cents for August, two cents for September, 31 cents for November, and 15 cents for December. The October price is now foreseen at the same level as for 1955.

The semiannual forecast was issued at the request of the dairy industry and interested persons. Dr. Blanford cautioned that since many of the actual price factors cannot be fully known this far in advance there probably will be revisions of his monthly estimates from time to time.
