

A piece of butter size of an egg
 Sugar to taste
 Put crust on top.
 This makes one large pie or two small ones.
 Here is a recipe that sounds like it might be fun for the whole family to do. Says Mrs. Aaron S. Glick in her letter:
 We receive the Lancaster Farming and I do enjoy the receipts. Enclosed is my favorite taffy which many of our plan people make.

TAFFY

Mrs. Aaron S. Glick
 1862 Rockvale Road, Lancaster
 One pint cream
 One pint Karo
 Two pounds white sugar
 -Cook 15 minutes, than add piece of paraffin size of small walnut.
 Soften two packages Knox Jello in one-third cup cold water and add to taffy, also one teaspoon vanilla.

Cook till a piece can be tested in cold water and seems hard and breaks.

Pour in two buttered trays.
 As soon as it is cool enough to handle then it is ready to pull.

We pull it till it gets white and fluffy and pulls hard. Then we cut strips of it and lay it on wax paper. We prefer some manpower to pull it. Usually five or six can work to good advantage.

We use a variety of flavors including mint, spice, peanut butter, and chocolate.

We cut squares of wax paper to wrap each piece separate after the strips are cut into pieces.

Mrs Glick also sends along another recipe which she says she has given to many who sell cookies on market and also to a bakery.

OATMEAL COOKIES

Mrs. Aaron S. Glick
 1862 Rockvale Road, Lancaster
 One and one-quarter pounds brown sugar
 One and one-quarter pounds white sugar
 One and one-quarter pounds lard or other shortening (I prefer lard)
 One pound raisins
 One pound oatmeal
 Three pounds flour
 One teaspoon nutmeg
 One teaspoon vanilla
 Mix with hands like pie dough. Now break three large eggs into a bowl.

Add one pint milk and four teaspoons soda. Beat and mix well. Pour-over crumbs and mix. These can be rolled or dropped.

Store in stone jar and they can be kept for months in a cellar, providing the boys won't find them.

Cranberries are coming into their own season and we're sure many of you have your own favorite ways of using them. Here is a delicious Cranberry Relish from Mrs. Charles Gochnauer, Quarryville, Dd. We might suggest this as an especially good dish to take to a covered dish supper. You will have nothing to take home but the empty dish.

CRANBERRY RELISH

Mrs. Charles Gochnauer,
 Rd Quarryville

Grind together:
 One-half pound cranberries
 One orange (with Peel)
 Add:
 One cup sugar
 One cup crushed pineapple (drained)

Dilute one package lemon jello in one cup water. (You might use the juice from the crushed pineapple as part of the liquid) When slightly thickened add the above ingredients and chill until firm.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Try storing leftover fat in paper cups. They don't take up a lot of room in the refrigerator and can be thrown away after the fat has been used.

If your thimble is too large, line it with adhesive tape to keep it on.

To keep that meat loaf from sticking place a few strips of bacon lengthwise in the bottom of the pan. It also adds flavor to the loaf.

That about does it for today. Keep those cards and letters coming. How about some recipes for a hearty casserole or tasty ways to fix the cheaper cuts of meat?

See you next Friday

The 30th Anniversary Lancaster County Society of Farm Women #12 was celebrated on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17, in a banquet at Morton's Restaurant, Rohrestown.

The County President, Mrs. E. Robert Nolt, in addressing the group, presented this slogan "Service is the rent you pay for the space you occupy."

Special recognition was given Mrs. Albert Hersh, first president of the organization, and to these past presidents Mrs. Ammon Huber, Drumore, Mrs. Paul Harnish, Conestoga, Mrs. Roy Eshelman, R1 Conestoga, Mrs. Lloyd Husson, Rohrerstown, and the present president, Mrs. Lester Sigman, New Danville. Each spoke briefly on the program of the Society during the 30 years. A History of Society 12, written by Mrs. Paul Harnish; was read by Mrs. Willis Glick. Three charter members—Mrs. Weslev Benedict, Mrs. Bertha Herr, and Mrs. Lester Sigman—were presented corsages. Two of the oldest members—Mrs. Callie Achey and Mrs. Alice Hersh—were also given corsages.

A vocal quintette, Mrs. Willis Glick, Mrs. James Brenner, Mrs. Benjamin Gehr, Mrs. Henry Elsen, and Mrs. Raymond Aston sang two selections, "My God and I" and "Some Folks Do." Miss Patsy Eshelman, Conestoga, played a piano solo, "Liebestraum."
