Poultry Cooking Contest Open; Event to Be Held at Barbeque

Applications for contestants in a cooking contest to be held at the Lancaster County Poultry Assn. chicken barbeque June 13 at Lititz Springs Park are now being taken, according to Mrs. Murreles Mount, contest chairman.

Due to the limited facilities available at the park, only about 10 contestants can be accepted. They will be on a first come, first served basis.

The contestants will supply their own recipes and materials in cooking a dish using poultry — chicken, duck, goose, or turkey. If the dish requires more than three hours for preparation and cooking, it may be pre-prepared and brought to the grounds to be cooked.

However, in the event pre-preparation must be used, the preparation must be duplicated before the judges at the park while the dish is cooking.

Two divisions of cooks will be judged. Division I is composed of boys and girls under 19 years old as of Aug 24. The senior division is those cooks 19 or over on Aug. 24.

Any type of preparation may be used. In former years, barbecued chicken, fried chicken and a baked chicken dish have won the state finals.

Judging will be based on the following score card: Tenderness, 25 points, flavor, 40 points; appearance, 25 points, and ease and neatness in preparation, 10 points.

The contest will be held at the pavilion at the park. Electric ranges will be used.

Applicants should send their name, age, address and the name of the dish to be prepared to: Mrs. Murreles Mount, Poultry Cooking Contest chairman, PP&L Building, Lancaster, Pa.

On display at the barbeque will be the new electronic range that cooks food by high frequency radiation. Home economists from PP&L will be cooking three pound chickens in 18 to 20 minutes, a job that normally takes about 90 minutes.

one-fourth cup sugar and beat unsoft peaks form. Add remaining till stiff peaks form. Fold into rhubarb mixture. Pour into baked pie shell. Chill about two hours. Sprinkle coconut on top if desired. For that something different in pies, this is it. Try it.

Mrs. Rissler has this to say about the following recipe:

This is a good pie to make on a busy day. Good luck to you who try it.

RHUBARB FILLING

Mary N. Rissler, Paradise
2 eggs, beaten
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/3 cup sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 cups sliced fresh rhubarb
Butter
Combine eggs, sugar, flour, orange rind and salt and mix well. Stir in rhubarb and pour into 9-inch unbaked pie shell and dot with butter. Cover with top crust and bake until done, about 50 minutes.

For something different in a refreshing springtime drink, how about this Rhubarb Punch. It is sent in by a reader who does not wish her name to be used.

RHUBARB PUNCH

4 cups cubed rhubarb
4 cups water
Boil it slowly until soft. Then drain through colander. Add one cup sugar and one-half teaspoon salt. Heat again, then chill.

The juice of one lemon and one orange may be added for variation with added sugar. Sometimes we wash the rind of the orange and lemon and boil it with the rhubarb. Dilute if you like it that way.

If you feel in the mood for making another pie along with your rhubarb pies, here is a Shoo-Fly Pie recipe sent in by Erma Wingenroth. She says that it is just a little different from the regular shoo-fly pies. She also says it makes a "gooey" pie.

SHOO-FLY PIE

Erma Wingenroth, R1 Stevens
1 heaping tablespoon flour
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup molasses
2 cups hot water
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Boil until thick and pour in un-
