medium heat, stirring constantly, until clear and thickened. Serve with ham or pork. Makes one and two-third cups.

For a vegetable dish with a new twist try Potatoes 'n Carrots au Gratin. Coarsely grated raw potatoes and raw carrots are seasoned with onion, sauce with condensed cream of celery soup and springled with grated American cheese. One hour of baking completes this casserole with a golden glow. Colorwise and flavorwise it is an ideal complement to the ham steaks.

POTATOES 'N CARROTS AU GRATIN

- 2 1/2 cups coarsely grated raw potatoes
- 1 1/2 cups coarsely grated raw carrots
- 1/2 cup coarsely grated onion
- 1 can (10-1/2 oz) condensed cream of celery soup, undiluted
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- 1/2 cup grated process American cheese

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Combine potatoes, carrots and onion in buttered baking dish (10x6x1-1/2). Blend soup, milk, salt and pepper, pour over vegetables. Cover, bake one hour. Uncover, sprinkle with cheese. Bake 15 minutes or until cheese is melted and vegetables are tender. Makes 8 servings.

Your relish tray, of course, begins with pickles. Choose several kinds—different shapes, different flavors. There are the new candied krink-1-chips, a flute cross-cut variety that follows the nation's preference for sweet but lightly spiced pickles. A good contrast is provided by the processed dill pickles or the Kosher baby dills. Fresh cucumber sticks or sweet cucumber disks are two more popular pickles.

With the pickles, you'll want celery, olives and radishes.

The watermelon fruit basket, illustrated in the picture, is an conversation piece at any table. Slice a medium-sized watermelon in half lengthwise. With a melon in the form of tiny balls. Finish hollowing out the fruit, then with a sharp knife scallop the cut edge. Refill the melon with the melon balls, sliced bananas and, if you desire, sliced oranges or grapes.

Picnics afloat are special fun for the entire family. Mom, Dad, and the kids of all ages can enjoy a trip by water and, when a tempting shore site comes into view, the outboard motor on the boat takes them right up to the beach for a wonderful grilled dinner.

For variety in the outdoor picnics, try Butter Grilled Chicken 'n Beans. The combination of butter-topped frozen lima beans and half a broiler-chicken is hearty enough for appetites sharpened by boating and water sking. The beans and chicken are butter-baked over the grill in individual serving packets of heavy aluminum foil. During the boat trip, the frozen beans help keep the chicken refrigerated and when ready for grilling, the beans and chicken cook in the buttery juices to delectable doneness.

If appetites are especially hearty, potatoes in foil jackets may bake on the grill along side the packets of chicken and beans. Before packing the potatoes, cut out a section with an apple corer and fill with butter. Wrap in foil, ready for grilling.

The rest of the menu is simple. Relishes are kept chilled, packed in plastic bags and carried in containers of ice cubes. The ice cubes also can be melted for making coffee or tea over the grill. The dessert is crispy butter cookies and fresh fruit.

BUTTER GRILLED CHICKEN 'N BEANS

is made by simply adding milk to your favorite canned condensed soup and heat as directed on the can. For outdoor eating, soup served in a mug, glass, or cup makes for a simpler and more convenient way to enjoy soup. To serve soup, pour into containers and float a golden pat of butter on the surface to add flavor, richness and extra goodness.
