Vol. III. No. 42.

Quarryville (Lancaster County) Pa., Friday, Aug. 29, 1958

$2 Per Year

County Youths Attend AIC At Penn State

By Jack Owen

STATE COLLEGE, Aug 25 Rain and fog failed to dampen the spirits of the Lancaster County Youth Delegation to the American Institute of Cooperation at Penn State. Good humor and joking was the order of the day for the eight county youths and their four adult leaders as they arrived in State College yester-

By much scurrying and dodging raindrops the baggage was finally stowed in the rooms in the college residence halls Ham-• ilton Hall for the boys and Thompson Hall for Doris Sollenberger, the only girl on the trip

The youths quickly made friends with other young people in nearby rooms. Doris met and became acquainted with Judy Kaley, the only girl with the York County Delegation

During the program of meditation Sunday evening the group heard some fine readings by outstanding FFA, 4-H, and FHA members from all parts of Pennsylvania. Dean Hoffer of Manheim FFA read the Scripture from Genesis 1 26-27 and Genesis 2 7, and also a short essay by Ralph Waldo Emerson called "Seedtime and Harvest"

Highlight of the program was a very inspirational and thoughtprovoking message entitled "Dust, Divinity, and Destiny" which was delivered by The Reverend James M Singer, Pastor of St Matthew's Lutheran Church, Bloomsburg. The Reverend Singer is originally from Manheim.

Immediately after the meditation program, the youthful cooperators participated in a getacquainted session where they met and played games with youth from many other states as well as some from Canada, Puerto Rico and several other countries. The first youth session of the institute was Monday under the capable co-chairmanship of How-Tobacco Harvest ard Downing, President of Nat'l Assn Future Farmers of Amer-Assn Future Farmers of America, Nicholsville, Ky. and Miss In High Gear Grace Elliot, Nat'l. Representative of 4-H Clubs, Laurel, Del. These young people drew warm praise from the local group for the efficient, businesslike way in which they handled the meeting

WAGON TRAIN DRIVER is John Adams, one of the 12 FFA boys from Solanco HS. who piloted the tractors on the 45 minute conservation tour at the National Plowing contest last week. On the front of the wagon nearest camera is Alvin Sauder, East Earl, and his father Eaby Sauder. Just behind him are his two sons who accompanied him on the trip. Also on the train but not shown in the picture were Mr. & Mrs. Noah Graybill and family, Lancaster R4: Three brothers, Clarence, Harry, and Martin Good, East Earl Township; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan M Weiler and family, Stevens (LF Photo)

Highlight of the afternoon session was the appearance on the program of the Secretaries of Agriculture in our state and federal governments.

Dr. W. L. Henning, State Secretary of Agriculture, spoke on nights have helped Reports from tion to the grand champion, three pounds, 24 50, A & B Keystone State Agriculture. He many parts of the county indicows to first place, a dairy herd told the visitors from other states

(Continued on Page Fire)

LANCASTER COUNTY GROUP is shown prior to their leaving for the thirtieth annual summer session of the American Institute of Cooperation at the Pennsylvania State University. Left to right, front row: Wayne Rentschler, Farm Bureau, Doris Sollenberger, Solanco FHA; Jack Owen, Chaperone, FFA. Middle row: Charles Rohrer, Pequea Valley FFA; John Yost, Pequea Valley FFA and 4H, Robert Armstrong, Solanco FFA; Richard Hackman, Manor FFA. Back row: Lee Brobst, Production Credit Association, James Nolt, Manheim FFA; Luke Brubaker, Donegal FFA; Wilbur Hosler, Manheim FFA and 4-H; Cranford Brantley, SPABC.

On County Farms

The tobacco harvest is in high gear on county farms this week with reports of very good tobacco from all parts of the county. Tobacco already in sheds is starting to cure well with no sign of farmers seem to think that cool The farm also showed, in addi-banon R1, Cross Breed, 220 of good size and quality

Farmers reported most of the placed third in its class other major crops in the county are growing and maturing well this week

have been reported, with aftermath making good growth Excellent hay was reported by several farmers this last week

Corn is sizing nicely and prospects are excellent The state crop reporting service has boosted its yield per acre estimates by 9 bushels during the month Fodder is the tallest in recent years on most farms with plants ranging upwards of ten feet in many areas Ears are of good size and most seem to be well filled at

The peach harvest is under tend the marketing period way and peaches are moving to In general, prospects are bright the markets in volume It was for most of the major crops in reported that several varieties the county.

Lauxmont Farms Retires Guernsey Show Trophy

Lauxmont Farms. Wrightsville, retired the premier trophy of the Pennsylvania Guernsey Breeders Association at the annual Guernsey Show on Tuesday

The farms, owned by Dr cate that the tobacco is generally to first place and one to second Service sponsors the show. The place A senior yearling bull

McDonald Farms Maxim Welda, a three year old Guernsey cow took the grand championship of the Exchange. Abram W Diffen-Some third cuttings of alfalfa the show, which drew more than bach was the auctioneer. 200 entries from four states, including New Jersey, Maryland and Connecticut

Grand champion bull was shown by J D Berry Jr, Titusbull by Clifford Conover, Highstown, New Jersey

Lauxmont's grand champion cow was also senior champion. Reserve champion was shown by George W Snyder, St Johns are late to ripen which will ex-

Hearing on Amendment of Phila. Milk Order Postponed to Sept. 18

Hearing on amendment of the Sylvania Hotel, Broad and Lo-Philadelphia Federal milk mar-cust Streets, Philadelphia. The keting order, scheduled for Aug. hearing will open at 9 30 a.m. 28. has been postponed to Sept. The postponement was made 18, the U.S. Department of Agri- at the request of the two organi- er. Lancaster R71 Wilbur Houser, culture announced Monday. Place zations that asked for the hear- Lampeter, Elmer Boyd, Ephrata of the hearing has been changed ing-the Inter-State Milk Pro-R1, Edgar Porter, Washington rd Brantley, from the United States Court ducers' Cooperative, Inc., and Boro R1, and John Hastings, Kirk- (LF Photo) House to the Carlton Room in the the Milk Distributors' Association, wood.

4-H Pig Sale Averages 23.90 cts. Champ At $1.16

The 4-H Pig Clubs from Lancaster and Lebanon Counties staged their 18th annual roundup and sale at the Lancaster Union Stock Yards on Wednes-

A 220 pound Yorkshire pig shown by John Barley, 12, son of Mr and Mrs Abram Barley of Washington Boro, RD1, was named grand champion Barley will be an eighth grader at Penn Manor High School next month The price of $116 cwt was paid by Kunzler & Co

Harold Smith, 17 year-old son of Mr and Mrs. Jacob Smith, Lebanon Valley Farms, Annville R1, had the reserve champion, a 195 pound Hampshire Weiland Packing Co, Phoneixville paid 51 cwt. for it

William Maule, Quarryville R2 had the champion group of ten. Their total weight was 2065 pcunds Kunzler & Co. was the buyer at 27.50 cents per pound.

Robert Groff of Peach Bottom had the reserve champion group ot ten weighing a total of 2455 pounds They brought 26 50 cents per pound from J. Lloyd Hollingcr of Lancaster.

The champions of each breed, weight, prices and buyer were as follows:

Buddy Hart, Quarryville R2; Bershire, 190 pounds, 25.50, S. W Hippey, Willow Street. John Hastings, Jr., Kirkwood, Chester White, 220 pounds, 24.75, Weiland Packing Co. David Heisey, Sheridan R1, Duroc Jersey; 225 pounds, 23 25; Kunzler & Co. Harold Smith, Annville R1; Poland China, 185 pounds; 23 00; Kunzler & Co David Zimmerman. George Pack, turned in an im-Reinholds R1; Spotted Poland pressive score in capturing the China, 225 pounds; 23 75; A & B, damage from hot weather. Some third leg of the premier trophy Allentown Kenneth Kreider, Le-

> The Agricultural sale is under the auspices of the Lancaster Livestock Exchange. Chairman of the show committee was W S Bixler, Secretary of

The pigs averaged 193.9 pounds and brought an average price of 23.90 cts per pound. Excluding the Grand Champion the average for the sale was 23.60 cents. Last ville, and the reserve champion year the pigs averaged 198 pounds and brought an average prie of 24.73. Two years ago the ruce of 24.73. Two years ago the Committees for the show and sale were Tagging - Warren Leininger, Denver R2, Bruce Boyd, Ephrata R1 Robert Dombach. Lancaster R2. Wilbur Hosler, Manheim R3, Wilbur Housei, Lampeter, and Edgar Shrom, Manheim R4.

Scales - Samuel Groff, Peach Bottom, Grafton Brabson, Peach Bottom, Elmer Boyd, Ephrata R1, Edward Graybill, Lititz R2, and Kenneth Miller, Christiana Penning-John Hastings, Kirkwood, Edgar Porter, Washington Bo10 R1, Harold Rohrer, Lancaster R7, Richard Lefever, Quar-1yville R1, and Charles Warfel, Conestoga R1.

Pen and Alleys — Harold Rohr-