Treat Dad on His Day

by Mrs. Richard C. Spence

Dad's Day means a special day and a special meal. It's the day when Dad scurries to his favorite easy chair or the backyard hammock. If the day is pleasant, set up the picnic table in the backyard or on the backporch. Whenever Dad wants to eat, the menu is still the same — the traditional favorite of chicken and cranberry sauce.

Here's Dad's Menu:

Broiled Chicken, Mushroom Sauce, Cranberry Cocktail Mold, Parslied Potatoes, Carrot Strips in Butter, Fudge Cake, Coffee and Milk.

Broiled Chicken

Preheat broiler 10 minutes. Line broiler pan with aluminum foil. Arrange chicken with skin sides down in bottom of pan without rack.

Sprinkle chicken with salt or seasoned salt. Brush with a mixture of melted butter and snipped chives or parsley. Place pan in broiler so surface of chicken is seven to nine inches from heat. Broil chicken slowly.

If it is impossible to place broiler pan this low in your range, lower heat to about 350 degrees. Turn chicken every 15 minutes, brushing with melted butter mixture each time.

Broil until fork tender, nicely browned and crisp. (45 to 60 minutes).

Mushroom Sauce

Heat one can undiluted condensed cream of mushroom soup with two tables-spoons butter or margarine and ½ cup milk. Add ½ cup drained canned mushrooms. Keep hot to serve over broiled chicken.

Cranberry Cocktail Mold

1 package raspberry flavored gelatin
1 cup apple juice
1 cup cranberry juice cocktail
2 tablespoons sugar

Dissolve gelatine in heated apple juice. Stir in cranberry juice cocktail and sugar. Mix well. Pour into a lightly oiled one pint mold or four (½ cup) molds.

Chill until firm. Serve on lettuce or chicory. Makes four servings.

Another summer salad to please Dad and the whole family—

Cranberry Melon Mold

1 package raspberry flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 can (1-pound) jellied cranberry sauce
1 can (1-pound) jellied cranberry sauce
1 (1-pound) package frozen jellied cranberry sauce
1 (1-pound) package frozen melon balls, thawed and drained; OR 1 cup fresh melon balls

Dissolve raspberry gelatin in hot water. Crush cranberry sauce with fork. Add to gelatin. Arrange several melon balls in corners or on the bottom of a one-quart mold.

Stir remaining melon balls into cranberry gelatin mixture. Spoon mixture into mold so that melon balls stay in place. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce.

Makes four to six servings.

Imperial Tenderloin will truly honor Dad on his day. Any cut of beef prepared in a favorite way will please him. However, this extra special beef tenderloin tells him you think he's a wonderful guy.

The tenderloin may be a whole or half, depending on the number you plan to feed. This is a waste-free cut, so you need plan on only ¼ pound per serving.

Select a tenderloin of a lower grade because this meat is tender, regardless of grade. For roasting you want it fat free.

Strip the steak of all fat and membrane and put it on a rack in a roasting pan. Tuck the small end under to give a compact appearance. For an elegant accompaniment for this superb roast, serve mushroom caps in caraway butter.

Imperial Tenderloin

1 beef tenderloin (4 to 6 lbs.)
¼ cup melted butter
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ pound blue cheese
¼ pound butter
Trim surface fat from tenderloin. Brush with melted butter. Roast on a rack in a hot oven (450 degrees) approximately 45 to 60 minutes or until roast meat thermometer registers 140 degrees.

Or try round steak made this special way—

Skillet Beef Steaks

2 pounds bottom round

steak (¼ to ½"
½ cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons paprika
½ teaspoon pepper
5 to 6 tablespoons butter
1 carrot cut into thin slices
1 small onion, finely ped
2 stalks celery, finely chopped
1 tablespoon chopped sley
1 Buiollon cube
1 cup water
½ cup milk
1 cup dairy sour cream

Cut steak into six portions. Mix flour, paprika and pepper - 1/2 pound into steak tablespoons butter in skillet; brown steak on both sides Remove skillet.

What goes on at the Stock Exchange?

Perhaps you have never seen a stock-broker's office operating. We know you will find it interesting. We have a modern local office where investors may watch the Trans-Lux for both the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange prices—and these prices are also posted on our quotation boards. Our ticker service for Exchanges and for the Dow-Jones news reports up to the minute.

Our office is a pleasant place, located on 111 Duke Street in the same block as the Court House. We will be happy to welcome you here at any time and show you around. Naturally you are under no obligation—we like visitors whether they intend to invest or not.

If you have never bought or sold securities before, you may wonder "How do I go about buying or selling stocks?" Your Reynolds Account Executive will execute your orders with speed and accuracy. The nation-wide wire system of Reynolds & Co. links every office with important financial centers across the country. Your orders are flashed immediately to the floor of the New York Stock Exchange or to any other leading security or commodity exchange. Then, within a few days after payment your stock certificates are delivered to you. And each month you get a statement of account, showing every transaction for that month and your present position with Reynolds & Co.

Our complete facilities afford you the opportunity to keep well abreast of trends and to handle your investments to the best advantage.

We extend a cordial invitation to visit our office.
