A Few Words On Fall Fashions
 Muted colors, elegant fabrics and comfortable styling is the word for fall fashion. The comfortable easy shirt-waist and casual dresses of this summer are to be repeated in the fall with elegant smooth fabrics. Last winter's looped materials will now be tight loops that show less bulk.

The top fashion will be the fabrics for they get the attention when simple styles are in vogue. Few pattern lines means the material is all important. Pattern is settling down but so is color. From the vivid shocking colors of this season the reds will turn to deep wine, bright green will be greyed, beiges turn to off-whites and blues will be subdued.

The number one color, usually black, turns to grey as the headliner. Greys in all materials, shoes and other accessories will be important. In silhouette you'll see a softness and femininity return. Natural lines with classic and romantic styles will be important.

Simple styles in the body of the dress will be set off by big sleeves in many neck interest will mark them shapes and lengths. Big collars and neck interest go with the few pattern lines in use. Shirtwaists will continue and other simple styles but the sleeves and as new.

Household Hints
 You can give overnight guests a real treat if you prepare them an outdoor breakfast. Keep the menu simple and so some of your preparation the night before. Plan to use your outdoor grill for baked apples, hot bread and eggs and sausage. The night before core an apple for each person to be served.

Fill with orange marmalade and chopped nuts, then sprinkle with lemon juice. Wrap in a square of foil, twisting the top to close. Store in the refrigerator.

For the hot bread use a French or Vienna style loaf and cut thick slices not quite down through. Spread each slice with softened butter mixed with poppyseeds.

Or sprinkle the buttered slices with sugar and cinnamon. Wrap in foil, store in refrigerator ready for morn-

In the morning start the charcoal and when it shows ash gray put the apples on the grill. Plan about 45 minutes to cook these.

For the bread, which goes right on the grill, too, you'll need about 20 minutes. Turn the foil covered a few times. You may leave the top of the loaf uncovered but you'll still turn the bread to both sides.

Cook sausage patties or links right on the grill. They will brown quickly and to mon. Wrap in foil, store in refrigerator ready for morn-
