To Learn Japanese Skills During Show

TRENTON, N.J.—Poultry men harboring a secret itch for a wife who can serve up tea on a bit of rice matting, or swing a pair of chop-sticks, will be hustling their better halves off to the Ladies Luncheon at the exposition of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council (NEPPCO) in Harrisburg, Pa. The reason? Talks on Japanese folkways by W. D. Termohlen, former agricultural attache to Japan, and demonstrations on Japanese flower arrangement by his wife.

The get-together for the ladies of northeastern poultrydom will be held in the Governor's Room of the Penn Harris Hotel, on Oct. 7, the second day of the three day exposition.

Termohlen, who spent more than four years in Japan, will describe the customs of the country, while Mrs. Termohlen will demonstrate her skills in flower arrangement Japanese Style.
