

Herb Heberlein Is Vo-Ag Teacher At Solanco High

Herb Heberlein, Millersville, has been appointed to the position of teacher of Vocational Agriculture at Solanco high school. He succeeds Jack Owen who resigned to accept a position with Lancaster Farming.

HERB HEBERLEIN

A native of Erie County Heberlein graduated from the Pennsylvania State University with a degree in Agriculture Education in 1948 after which he taught at East Berlin high school in Adams County for two years.

After two years teaching in the Veterans On-The-Farm Training program, Heberlein served as area manager with the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers, Inc. for five years. He was associated with H. M. Stauffer and Sons as manager of sales for two years.

Born and reared on an Erie County Farm, Heberlein studied Vocational Agriculture in high school where he earned the degree of Keystone Farmer in the Future Farmers of America.

During World War II, Heberlein served for 3½ years in the Army medical corps.

Heberlein and his wife, the former Madeline Myers, have six children, five boys 15, 12, 10, 8, and 2 years, and one girl, 6 years. The family will remain in Millersville for the present.

If farmers carry out their intentions this fall, hog numbers will be 27 per cent higher than two years ago, points out Lester Burdette, Penn State extension livestock specialist. Look for lower prices and critical buying
