Delmarva - Georgia Price Rises On Curtailed Supply

Delmarva reported prices ranging from 18 80 to 20 70 on 476,800 head at the farm during the 24 hour period ending 10.30 Friday morning. Estimated slaughter for the week end by Delmarva processors was 370,000 head compared to the 610,000 head of last week end. Price was effected somewhat by the weather which forced closing of some of the processing plants. Movement of poultry was very limited. The Delmarva broiler - feed ratio for the week ending February 26 was unchanged at 40 Six months ago the ratio was 34, and for the same week last yr. the ratio was 35 For the week ending February 26, broilers averaged 18 62 and mash cost $92 20 per ton. Georgia reported prices ranging from 17 to 18 75 on 766 000 head at farms for the 24 hour period ending 10-30 Friday morning. Two per cent were at 17, 51 per cent at 18 and 11 per cent at 18 5 to 18 75. Estimated slaughter for the week end by Georgia processors was 1,103,000 head compared to 1 498,000 head last week end.

SPRING IN WINTERTIME
A breath of spring can be introduced in the home by forcing into bloom some branches of flowering shrubs, reminds Mrs Lynn Smith, Penn State extension floriculturist. Among them are forsythia pussy willows, flowering quince, and red-
