USDA and industry edited by Alfred Stefferud, who has been editor of the Yearbook since '45. Topics in its sixty chapters include the development of tractors, electricity, communications, power on the land, harvesting developments in livestock, mechanical marketing, farm buildings, efficiency of labor and the effects of power, and power in the future. The 96 pages of photographs show mechanical developments and many new items of equipment. There are so are many charts and drawings. Things is not enough. Wisdom requires an understanding of what the march of technology can do to people and for people.

In the foreword Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson says:

"The value of this book is that it pictures on a wide screen and in sharp focus the technological revolution that now is changing not only agriculture but our way of living . . .

"The revolution gives us new benefits every month, even every day—better food and more of it, improved industrial products, less work, more leisure . . ."

But, he continues, "the mere possession of tools, gadgets, machines, packages,

THE . . .

McCormick No. 15 Field Harvester

The Price is the Lowest!

Chops with the Biggest!

Now you can chop row crops at a 40-ton-per hour clip . . . then switch to cutter bar or windrow pickup in 10 minutes or less! It's the new McCormick® No. 15 Field Harvester. You'd expect the cost of a unit that's this fast in the field . . . to be out of reach of the family-size farm. Yet the No. 15 is priced with the lowest cost multiple-head choppers on the market! What's more, it gives you up to 60% more chopping capacity than anything in its price class.

Power requirements are low, too. The No. 15 can be pto-driven by a 2-3 plow tractor. Visit us and see all the IH quality features—features that will keep your new No. 15 field harvester chopping years longer. Watch pull-in feeding and high-speed aprons compress the crop . . . chop a wagon-full in just a few minutes. We invite comparison with any other field harvester in this price class. See the No. 15 before you buy!
