of the FFA show.

At the swine show earlier in the day, James Houser, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilbur Houser, Lampeter, showed his Chester White Junior Spring Gilt to the female Grand Championship of the show while Willow Glen Farm, Strasburg R1 took the boar rosette with a young Yorkshire boar.

Houser, a 10th grade student at Lampeter-Strasburg High School, exhibited the gilt he won earlier this year in a Future Farmers swine ring program. A newcomer to the Lampeter fair competition, Houser exhibited 4-H swine on two other occasions, winning 4th place in the district roundup three years ago.

Livestock judge at the fair was Ben Morgan, Extension Specialist from Penna. State
