

MISS EMMA MAE MAST POSES "NIX" THE ANGUS STEER was carried off Grand impionship honors at the Pennsy vania Livestock Exposition on Tuesday. "Nix", namin honor of Vice President Nixon was proclaimed "champion of the junior show on honday and went on to break a show jinx. It was the first time in the show's history a junior champion took away the grand championship banner.

—L. F. Photo

Town Future Farmers stablish 'Calf Ring'

Thirty interested business- in the chapter to initiate the ree Future Farmers a head were at in the dairy cattle while Myer won a Guernsey. week when

Two of the aspiring dairyen chose Purebred Hola registered Guernsey. Gary Kreiner, Elizabethwn R3, Irwin Engle, Marta R1, and Kenneth Myer the teacher of vocational Elizabethtown R3, were agriculture, Marlin Henninected by a committee of er peers to be the three

ARM CALENDAR

v 12 to 17—Eastern National Livestock Show at lmonium, Maryland.

District directors in the court house.

ov 15-5:30 pm. - 4-H Turkey club roundup spon Lions Club in the Strasburg fire hall.

00 pm. Manor Young farmers meet in the high chool agriculture room. ret in a series on Farm Mechanics. New structures ind materials.

16-9:00 am. - Red Roci Baby Beef and Lamb Club roundup and sale.

17—First day of Intertate Milk Producers anhual meeting in the Ben hanklin Hotel, Philadel-

(Turn to page 14)

n in Elizabethtown gave project. Kreiner and Engle awarded Holsteins y furnished the financial on a six-part, 100 point ing for a calf ring plan- scheme is a student in voby the FFA chapter at cational agriculture at the Elizabethtown Area High School.

Each of the winners will ans while the third select- take his calf to his home farm and raise and care for it under the supervision of the calf ring committee and

(Turn to page 11)

Boyd's Capons Win At Ephrata

The plump capons exhibited by Darvin Boyd, Ephrata and identified. In amassing  $^{17}$   $^{14}$   $^{-7}$   $^{\cdot}$  00 p.m. - Meet- R3, on Wednesday night,  $^{lng}$  of the Lancaster Co- combined with the score in unty Soil Conservation his 4-H project book, put him in first place in the scor- County Men ing of the Lincoln Community Capon club.

Boyd, the son of Mr. and fored by the Strasburg Mrs. Elmer Boyd, and a student of Animal Husbandry at the Delaware Valley College of Science and ler and Bushong, Rohrers plannelm ro, stillered multi-Agriculture, received a cash town, was elected first vice ple puncture wounds of his award from Charles North- president by the Pennsylvanup, Lititz R3, program chair- 12 Millers and Feed Dealers man for the Ephrata Lions at their recent meeting. Club, sponsors of the event.

ing was David Zimmerman, as directors of the organiza-District show at the Stock Reinholds R1 while third tion. They are Wilbur C. place went to Paul Schantz, Hiestand, S. H. Hiestand and Ephrata R1.

> ceived a cash donation from pany, Elizabethtown. the club for their participation in the event: John Zim- group is L. D. Ritchey, Cur

(Turn to page 5)

David Denlinger Has Best Exhibit In 'Bug' Club

David Denlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Denlin-Each of the boys, selected ger, 2351 Horseshoe Road, was the top winner in the Six farm accidents involv- farm near Oxford on Oct. 26. county-wide 4-H entomology ing corn pickers have been Rueben N. Martin, forty-Farm Bureau Auditorium in three weeks. recently.

The sixth of

(Picture on Page 7)

Denlinger, a three year member in the club was pressed all the way to his win by the exhibit of a two year club member, Stephen Rannels, son of Mr. and Mrs Donaid Rannels, 123 South Spruce Street, Lititz.

The 14 year old Denlinger a 10th grade student at the Conestoga Va'ley High School presented as his exhibit, the 76 insects in 11 orders he has collected, mounted, (Turn to page ?)

Given Posts By Feed Millers

Robert B Graybill of Miland ler and Bushong, Rohrers-

Two other Lancaster coun-Second place in the judg- ty men were elected to serve Co., Salunga and Paul M. the farm of a neighbor. All of the following re- Grubb, Grubb Supply Com-

> New President of the ry Supply Co., Curryville.

County Girl Breaks Jinx, Shows Jr. Champ To Top

A fifteen-year-old Lancaster county girl broke a four year jinx at the Pennsy'vania Livestock exposition Tuesday when her steer became the first junior champion in the history of the show to take the grand championship banner.

Miss Emma Mae Mast, of aminations on Tuesday, led year winner, Penn State. her 970 pound angus, "Nix" The University showed e into the show ring on Mon- ery champion steer in the day to compete in the 4-H open competition except the and FFA classes.

Judge Robert A Long of the Lancaster Mennonite an angus to the top spot in School student into a situat- the Garden Spot show and aces at once. However, the Showing won out and Miss Other members of the Mast nudged her Glenmoore Mast family have come in

Elverson R2, halfheartedly bred-steer into the winners hoping she would be able circle of the open competito return to school for ex- tion by beating out the two

$2 Per Year

The University showed evbig one.

The banner represents the the University of Georgia, second grand championship in tapping Emma Mae's en- for the Mast family this try as junior champion, put year. Sister Rhoda showed ion of wanting to be two pl- sale at the Lancaster Stock

(Turn to page 6)

Two Purple Ribbons Won By County Swine Growers

Harrisburg - Two Lancas- string of nine hogs to all but Farm Show building this ond consecutive year. week.

On Monday a Hampshire ket hog carcass show. On Tuesday C. Warren

Leininger, well know breed- won the sow championship er of Spotted Poland Chinas in 1959. of Denver R2, showed his ter County Swine breeders one of the breed championcarried away honors as they ships to win the premier left the small arena at the breeder's award for the sec-

The Leininger entries took barrow exhibited by John championship boar and both Stuber, Denver, took the champion and reserve marchampionship banner in the ket barrow honors, but had on foot judging of the mar- to settle for reserve championship in the sow compe-tition. The Leininger herd

(Continued on Page 13)

Accidents Continue

Report Six Cornpicker Mishaps

club roundup held in the reported in the county with- eight, Lititz R4, underwent a 36-year-old Mount Joy R1 farm on Nov. 2. tennant farmer suffered the of the same address.

Listed in satisfactory condition after emergency sur- the cornpicker operator. gery at the Lancaster Geneal hospital was Walter Shaub. Hospital attendants about 4:00 pm. while Shaub was trying to clear the clogged picker and his thumb became caught in the mechanism.

On Oct. 24, Robert Mc-Sparran, forty, Peach Bottom R2, underwent surgery for the amputation of most of his right hand after it was mangled by a cornpicker on his farm there.

Earl D. Wenger, twenty, Manheim R3, suffered multiright hand on Oct. 19 when he caught it in a corn picker on his father's farm.

Earl L. Wiker, fifty-eight Gordonville R1, underwent emergency surgery to repair a mangled right hand which he caught in a cornpicker on Oct. 19 while working on

Charles Pyle, thirty-three of near New Texas, suffered the amputation of his left hand when it was caught in a cornpicker on his father's three weeks. surgery to repair a mangled.

The sixth of these acci-right arm when it was caudents occurred Tuesday when ght in a corn picker on his

Jesse Cutler, Fishing Creek loss of his left thumb while long active in the county's working on a corn picker farm safety program, said on the farm of John Grosh the rash of accidents can be laid, in most cases, to human error on the part of

He explained that the ma-jority of the accidents involving cornpickers occur said the accident occurred when the operators try to (Turn to page 5)

FIVE - DAY WEATHER FORECAST

Saturday - Wednesday

Temperatures for the next five days will average 2 to 8 degrees above the normal temperature of 36 at night to 54 in the afternoon. - Warmer Saturday. Cooler on Sunday. Warmer Monday through Wednesday. Precipitation may total less than 0.1 inch occurring as snow flurries about Saturday or Sunday. Rain during last Wednesday night and Thursday morning totaled about 34 inch bringing the November total to 11's in. November temperatures have averaged just slightly below normal to date.