OL. 6 NO. 10

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, January 28, 1961

$2 Per Year

HENRY S. MELLOTT, NEWEST MEMBER of the Soil Conservation team in the ounty gets a briefing on the soils and topography of the county by Martin Muth, Work Int Conservationist in charge of the local office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture was 4,544,388 head compargency. Mellott will work as farm planner for soil and water conservation in the local ed with 5,099,060 head the -L. F. PHOTO

Bedford Countian Fills Local Conservation Post

Henry S. Mellott, formedly ture, worked for the began work this wanda, Bradford County. veek with the Lancaster Mellott, recently released orted for work on Monday. to military service. Te will assist the office as a uties will include farm er County office. lanning for soil and water onservation.

legree in general agricul- Lancaster County.

Breezewood. Bedford Conservation Service in To-

Conservation fice for six months, making versity Extension rom service in the army, re- planning, before being called week.

Upon his discharge, Meloil conservationist on farms lott returned to the SCS and serve in Northampton Counequesting such service. His was assigned to the Lancast-

Mellott was reared on a rector, Dr. H. R. Albrecht. small general farm in Bed-Mellott, after graduation ford county and graduated from The Pennsylvania State from Everett High School. inversity in 1958 with a He will take up residence in ers of District 11 were told the end of seven years. hursday at the annual banuet of the group.

Economist Tells Members Co-Op Reserves Growing

FARM CALENDAR

an. 30—7.30 pm. - County

ment Co., Ephrata.

b. 2-8.00 p. m. Solanco Steven Spencer, both of Quarryville R1. Dairy Extension Specialist milking procedures.

lersville R1.

b. 6-7-8—Small fruit con- Kreider, terence at Yorktowne Ho- score 96.0. el, York. Contact County igent for details.

ided to the holdings of the ville Methodist Church, the Bridle Club hterstate Milk Producers' reserves will be rotated and

Dr. Paul E Hand, Econo- the bulk hauling contracts month-old daughter. hist from the cooperative's negotiated by the cooperaaff, told the 260 members tive had been expanded during the year. This represents Dist. Forester a permanent saving to members, he said

He also commented on Future Farmers meet at the work of Interstate in se- Is Promoted Cocalico High School, in curing a price increase of 10 cents per hundredweight ov-8 00 pm. - Southern Trac- er the 1960 price through district forester, was promottor Club meets at Wenger Federal Order 61. The in- ed in grade by the Pensyl-Implement Company, Buck crease will be in effect thru vania Department of Forests in. 31—800 p m. North- the first nine months with a and Waters Tuesday. eastern Tractor Club meets possible 30 cents increase at the International Equip- during the last three months 25 in the state's 20 forest served as president of Pennof the year, he said.

Young Farmer's meeting pins were presented to A. program of promotion and White Leghorn breeding farm in the High School, Quar- Clyde Kreider, Roy Aument, transfers throughout the st-members having the highest dard said. 7.30 pm. - Meeting of the dairy club project book tion at the Poultry Center. ored were Paul Trimble, of of the Lancaster County Marilyn Harnish, Quarry and 1960 sales were nearly Growers at the ville R2, score 96.5; Carol $700,000. farm of Amos Funk, Mil- Ann Krantz, New Providence Quarryville

> Gerald Kreider, Quarry-(Turn to page 8)

Gerald H. Hess Is Appointed By PSU Extension

An Elizabethtown R3 resident has been appointed to He had served in that of the Pennsylvania State Uni-Service maps, surveying ponds and Staff as an assistant County diversions, and doing farm Agent, it was announced this

> Gerald H Hess, who graduates from PSU today, will ty beginning Feb. 1, according to Extension Service Di-

Hess will be associated with County Agent Samuel D. Lewis in the Easton office Hess, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hess, is a graduate of Elizabethtown high school. He majored in Animal Husbandry at PSU. While at the University he was a member of the livetock and meats judging Reserves of $130,000 were in attendance at the Quarry- teams and the Block and

He is married to the formcoperative last year, mem- returned to the members at er Helen Graybill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J Homer Dr. Hand reported that Graybill, Manheim R4. Mr. the number and volume of and Mrs Hess have a one-districts, Secretary Maurice In other business, 25-year K. Goddard announced. The ate is planned to assist the poultry business in the Pen and pencil sets were small woodlot owners to will demonstrate proper awarded to the four 4-H grow trees as a crop, God-rectors of the Lancaster scores in the area covered by increasing timber sales from of directors of the Lancaster County Poultry Associa- District 11. The youths hon- state forests by 50 per cent. County Poultry Association b. 6—1.00 pm. - Meeting Quarryville R1, score 97.2; acres in state owned forests week, the association present-

John Kitch

> Goddard said the promo-R1, score 92.6, and Lucille tions will cost the state near R1, ly $15,000 per year.

Association.

Broiler Prices Higher In 1960, Report Shows

Broiler prices last year averaged almost a half cent higher than during 1959, but did not reach the high average price of 1958, Lancaster County poultrymen were told in a report at their annual meeting Monday night at the Poultry Center.

Prices during 1960 averg- ry Center has been reduced ed out to 1835 cents for to $19,000. broilers as compared with the yearly average of 1787 fees during the year brought for the year previous. The in $10,278.62, the largest 1958 figure was reported to single source of income. Anhave been 19.80.

Volume of broilers sold in 1959 to 3,819.945 head brought in a total of $6,833. last year, but the increase in 55. the volume of heavy fowl, leghorn fowl and roasters ceipts of $22,198.18 against made up a part of the differ- disbursments of $21,371.52.

Total volume during 1960 year before.

Daniel Good, treasurer, in reporting on the finances of

Roy B. Herr Honored By Poultrymen

Poultryman of the year in caster R7. 1959, was honored by The Lancaster County Poultry was Professor R. W Schlosders of the association and by Mark Myer, president of served as president for 12 the assn.

Good also reported listing other large source of income was the Saturday Barbecues declined from 4,533,460 head at the Poultry Center which

The report listed total re-Cash balance on hand as of January 1 was $1,684.97.

Five directors were re-elected to three year terms and one new director was elected.

Returned to the board the organization said the or- were Daniel K. Good, Columiginal mortgage on the poult- bia R1, a poultry buyer; C. Eugene Cassel, Manheim Feed Dealer; John Longenecker, Elizabethtown hatcheryman and grower; Lewis Mortenson, Wabank Road, Lancaster, and Roy Erb, 118 Kreider Ave., Lancaster, an egg producer. The new direc tor is Glenn G. Herr, owner Roy B. Herr, Pennsylvania of a breeding flock at Lan-

Speaker of the evening

Herr was one of the foun- The program was directed

ROY B. HERR, LANCASTER R7, shown at the door to his incubator was honored Monday night by the Lancaster County Poultry Association Herr served the association as director for 27 years and was presented a plaque upon his retirement from the board.

years. He was vice president John Kitch, Reinholds R1, during the first year of operation and moved to the top spot when the organization elected officers for the The promotion was one of second year. He has also sylvania Poultry Federation.

> Herr, who operates a at Lancaster R7, has been in county for about 40 years.

During the last 27 years The program is aimed at he has served on the board There were two million Upon his retirement this ed him with a plaque and a life membership in Presentation was made by Kitch is presently presi- Jay Greider, Mount Joy R1, dent of the Conestoga Valley a member of the board of directors.

FIVE - DAY WEATHER FORECAST

Saturday - Wednesday

Temperatures during the next five days will average about eight degrees below the normal range of 24 at night to 39 in the after noon. Cold weather is expected to continue over the week end with some moderation Monday and a return to colder temperatures again about Tuesday or Wednesday. Precipitation may total about 0.4 inches melted falling mainly as rain or snow Monday or Tuesday.