

Where Wool Goes

If the five hundred and thirty-three million pounds of wool used in the United States last year were divided equally among all American families, your family's share would have been about twelve pounds. About four pounds of wool produced in the United States and four and a half pounds of imported wool went into your family's clothing, blankets, diapers, and upholstery. The other three and a half pounds . . . almost entirely imported . . . was carpet wool and was used for floor coverings.

Record for the show, was the $2.20 paid to the Pennsylvania State University for an Angus grand champion in 1959. Two of Wesley's steers featured prominently in the sixth consecutive Lancaster County win in the county-group-of-five steers contest. The other steers, all Angus, in the county group were shown by Rose Marie Linton, Quarryville R2, Wilbur Hosler, Manheim R3, and Nancy Rohrer, Lititz R3. The only other countian to break into the ranks of the championships was C Warren Leininger who showed an

THE SIXTH CONSECUTIVE CHAMPIONSHIP in the county group competition at the Pennsylvania State Livestock Exposition was won this week by the Lancaster County contingent. The team of five 4-H Angus steers were shown by, left to right above, Mae Mast, (showing a steer entered by her brother Wesley) Wesley Mast, both of Elverson R1; Nancy Rohrer, Lititz R3, Rose Marie Linton, Quarryville R2, and Wilbur Hosler, Manheim R3. The county has never been beaten in the six year history of the show. L. F. Photo.
