Farm Women 10 Hold Auction

A white elephant sale was a feature of the recent meeting of Farm Women Society 10 in Krall's Tea Room, East Petersburg.

Mrs. Wayne G. Brubaker and Mrs. Fred D. Aungst were co-hostesses, and Mrs. William Fox conducted devotions. Roll call was answered by the members telling their first names and discussing whether they were satisfied with the names their parents had given them. Most members reported that they were pleased with their first names.

A contribution was made to the migrant workers fund. Miss Elaine Ritchie of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. spoke on "It's Fun to Entertain", illustrating her talk with slides.

On Thursday, May 9, the society is planning a bus trip to the McCormick Spice Company factory in Baltimore, Md. Women who are not members but would like to make the trip may make arrangements by contacting Miss Frank Hodecker, 907 Grafton Road.

The April 6 meeting will be at the home of Miss Elam Buckwalter 20 Princess Ave., Lancaster.

For Success With Gelatin Desserts

When combining beaten egg whites with a gelatin mixture, always fold the mixture into the egg whites. This will help the final mixture stand up well and be fluffily. Beat the egg whites stiff, but not dry. They should stand in firm peaks when you take out the beater, and whites should have a glossy appearance.

Chill gelatin to the exact stage stated in the recipe. If you are to add solids to the basic gelatin, chill it to the consistency of unbeaten whites of fresh eggs.

If you are going to whip the mixture, chill it until it's slightly thicker than unbeaten egg whites. During chilling, stir the mixture occasionally so it chills evenly.

Fancy molds are fine, but you can use bowls, cups, or pans. If you want to save time mold the gelatin dessert in individual dishes or sherbert glasses and you can bring them right to the table.

Garnish the dessert after you unmold it on a serving dish. Place whole fruit or whipped cream so you can spoon it easily onto individual servings.

Cash Buying Has Advantages
For routine shopping trips to buy groceries, small household items, and other minor supplies, you probably use cash — either currency or personal checks. And if you have large amounts of cash available, you may use it for major purchases of household equipment or furnishings.

Cash buying has certain advantages . . . some of them are: A feeling of independence if you don't owe money to anyone.

A greater selection of stores if you're not limited to business concerns in which you have credit privileges.
