

Farm Women 8 Host Society 5 Farm Women 21 Hold A Party

Society of Farm Women 8 entertained members of Society 5 at a Saint Patrick's Day party last Saturday in the home of Mrs. Mary Sarver, Walnut Tree Farms near Manheim.

Twenty seven members of society 5 and 38 members and guests from the host society heard a talk by Edgar Hertzler, Elizabethtown.

Mrs. Charles Felty had charge of devotions, and Virginia Wivell, a high school student presented a recitation, "Spring Gardens". Mrs. Charles Brown, Harrisburg, sang a solo.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Paul Witman, Mrs. Amos Newcomer, Mrs. Roy Forney, Jr., Mrs.

At a Saint Patrick's Day party given by members of Farm Women Society 21 last Saturday in the home of Mrs. George Pickel, Quarryville R1, members exchanged gifts featuring "something green".

Mrs. William P. Arrowsmith and Mrs. Clair DeLong conducted several Irish games. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Morgan E. Foose, Jr. and Mrs. James Landis.

Plans were made to entertain members of Society 10 at Rhoads Spanish Tavern, Quarryville, on Thursday, April 11.

Contributions to Heart Haven and the Lancaster County

Clinton Eby, Mrs. Clyde Wivell, and Mrs. Margaret Hershey.

Society' for Crippled Children and Adults were made. Mrs. Arrowsmith reported on the visit with Society 13 at the Lancaster County Farm Bureau building earlier in the month. Roll call was answered by each member telling a windy story.

Mrs. Richard Jackson, president, reminded members that Societies 21 and 22 will visit the Lancaster County Home in April, with Mrs. DeLong, Mrs. Charles Long, and Mrs. Grayson Cooper, representing this group.

Basic Dress

A woman can wear a truly basic dress almost any place, at any time of day or year, believes Bernice Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist. When a woman chooses accessories according to the effect she wishes to give, the basic dress can become tailored, glamorous, or casual.
