

Farm Women 4 Host Daughters

A mother-daughter tea was featured at the recent meeting of Farm Women Society 4 in the home of Mrs. Robert Herr, Lancaster R2.

Mrs. Harrison Nolt led devotions. The tea table featured miniature red and white carnations and candles. Nancy Herr poured.

Daughters contributing numbers for entertainment were Cindy Siegrist, five, who read nursery rhymes; Nancy Herr who played piano and flute solos with her sister Helen accompanying her when she played the flute; and Judy Shell-emberger, who sang several numbers; she was accompanied by her sister, Sylvia.

Corsages were presented to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Minnie Musser; the youngest girl, Jane Stoppard, four; and the four mothers whose birthdays come in May.
