VOL. 8 NO. 37

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, August 17, 1963

$2 Per Year

STATE CHAMPION 4-H POULTRY JUDGING TEAM pose upon their return to the county from The Pennsylvania State University this week. They are, left to right, Jay Hess, Manheim R3; Albert Henry, New Providence R1; Gary Porter, Washington Boro R1; Robert Henry, New Providence R1, and Winthrop L. F. Photo. Merriam, associate County Agent, who coached the team.

Dairy Sets Maximum Butterfat Limit On Producers Milk Test

have been notified that the milk from those patrons whose more than 3.8 per cent butter- ing the month of July 1963 - compelled to limit our purcha- or higher." sing of milk only so far as - due to the uneconomical fi- dale Farms, Inc. nancial arrangements under the present marketing order, we sincerely regret that we must Fulton Grange institute the following restric-tions which shall remain in To Host County effect until further notice."

In a letter dated March 21, Fulton Grange will be host 1963, the dairy set the maximum butterfat at 4.0. A letter for their annual picnic at 7 dated June 1, set forth the fol- p.m Members of Lancaster Co. lowing restrictions:

"Beginning August 1, 1963, we will not accept any milk from patrons whose milk tested 3.8% or higher during the

Farm Calendar

Aug. 18-10 a.m. - All Western horse show at Rocking G Stables, 231 East Main Street, Bareville.

Aug. 20-7 p.m. — Manor FFA corn roast at Safe Harbor

4-H club pigs at the Union Stockyards, Lancaster.

1:30 p.m — Sale of 4-H pigs at Union Stockyards, Lancas-

5:30 p.m. — FFA Swine Ring banquet and awards program at Hotel Yorktown, York.

Patrons of the Elizabethville month of June 1963 On Sept. Dairy, Sunnydale Farms, Inc., 1, 1963, we will not accept dairy will not accept milk with milk tested 385 or higher dur-Any patron shipping milk of In a letter sent to all patrons, 3.8% or higher in any month the dairy said, in part, "Due to will not be able to ship us bethe present set up of the Fed- youd 30 days after the month eral Marketing Order, we are in which his milk tested 3.8%

The letter was signed by butterfat content is concerned Stanley Eisenberg for Sunny-

Grange for their annual picnic today at 7 p.m. Members of Lancaster Co Granges are to bring a meat dish, one other dish and silverware. The protest and entries in the art contest will be judged.

Fulton Grange #66 held August 12 the Master, Charles G. McSparran, gave a report of the accomplishments of the past session of the Pa. Legis-

Mrs. W. Harold Graybeal Aug. 21-8 a.m. - judging of presented the following program: Violin solo by J. Robert Reed accompanied by Mrs. Maurice Gregg on the piano, John Bradley gave a report of the Juvenile Grange Camp held at Camp Kanesatake July in the county on Thursday and 21-28. Skit "Counting Eggs" by Mrs. Howard Steinberg and day afternoon. Aug. 23-10 a.m. — County Mrs. Thomas Bradley; Square Guernsey breeders field day Dance directed by Clair Mur- of Armstrong Cork Company, Beam, Issac Groff and Walter at the L. E. Shoemaker farm, phy and Mrs. Ambrose Giffing Hershey Chocolate Factory, and Dunlap, Jr., Sec. of the Exwith the following taking part: the Amish farm section of the change. Victor Plastow, Asst. Ang. 25-27 - State homemak- Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stauffer county. Saturday night's pro- County Agent, will represent

Guernsey Men Plan Field Day

The Annual Field Day of the Lancaster County Guernsey Breeders' Association will be held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs L. E Shoemaker and Sons, Kirkwood, Pennsylvania, Friday, August 23.

Judging will begin promptly at 10:00 a. m. There will be three classes of cattle to judge; aged cow, two years old, and heifer. Prizes will be awarded.

Roger L. Strack, a young man very much interested in the Guernsey Breed, will act in capacity of judge and speaker. He is employed by Eastern States Farmers' Exchange and was former herdsman at Laux- 4-H Pig Show mont Farm.

Field Day Committee Chair- Is Next Week dairymen take route 472 out of Quarryville and follow the signs to Shoemaker's farm Box lunch will be served by the ladies of the Union Church.

At the regular meeting of Members Visit In The County

Twenty-six 4-H club members and leaders from Onondaga County, New York, are in the county this week end returning the exchange visit to local 4-H club members who went to the Empire state community last winter.

The 22 young people and their four adult leaders arrived plan to leave for home on Sun-

Two 4-H Judging Teams Win Blue Ribbon Awards

turned to Lancaster county fort with a second place indivi-Wednesday with first place blue dual finish. Others on the team ribbons and plaques won in were Roy Breneman, Willow competition at Pennsylvania Street R 1; Donald Bollinger, 4-H Club Days at the Pennsyl- Manheim R1 and Kenneth Rutt, vania State University.

With wins in dairy and poultry judging, Lancaster County was the only double winner in the state.

last year's championship per- in fifth place Nineteen teams formance, beat West Moreland entered the event to make it County for the top prize

The team was composed of J. Kenneth Hess, Manheim R3, fifteen-year-old forestry demon-Gary Porter, Washington Boro strator, was high scorer in the R1; and twins Albert and Rob- event and captured a blue rib-

The dairy judging team sur- a first place medal. passed 43 other teams in the Chester finished third.

Elvin Shelly, eighteen, Man-

Two 4-H judging teams re- heim R1, boosted the teams ef-Quarryville R1.

York County, which makes a habit of top livestok teams, again took the first place laurels with Lancaster a close second. Eugene Hosler, Manheim R3, The poultry team, repeating was the county's high finisher the third argest of the day

Jay Lehman, Holtwood R1, ert Henry, New Provdence R1. bon in the Danish system and Falling from last year's first largest class of competition place showing, the swine jud-Second was Blair County, while ging team tied for third with Adams County.

(Continued on Page 8)

Three County 4-H Youths Awarded Keystone Honors

Three county youths were Home Economics. awarded the coveted Keystone Club Day on the Penn State University Campus.

Honored for leadership and achievement was Donald Trimble, 21, Quarryville R1. David Denlinger, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Denlinger, 90 Greenfield Road, was honored for Agriculture, and Miss Cynthia Bucher, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Willis Bucher, Lititz R2, won the honor for

The annual Lancaster County 4-H Market Hog Show & Sale will be held at the Lancaster Union Stock Yards, Wednesday, August 21, 1963.

The Show will get underway at 8.00 A.M. when 160 hogs from nine Lancaster County 4-H Community Hog Clubs will be judged by breed in three weight classes by Tony Dobrosky, York County Apent.

There will be judging in lightweight (under 190 lbs), medium weight (190-220 lbs) and heavyweight (over 220 lbs) classes

At 1.30 p.m. approximately 160 hogs will be auctioned to the highest bidder. Claude Smith will call the sale.

The Committee for the Livestock Exchange and the Union Stock Yard Co., sponsors of the show and sale consists of Horace Plank, Chairman; Norman Their schedule includes tours Barley, John Stoudt, John ers camp at Camp Swatara. (Continued on Page 5) (Continued on Page 5) the Extension Service Office.

Trimble, who completed ac-Award for outstanding 4-H ach- tive club membership last year, nevement at ceremonies this coached the first place county week during Pennsylvania 4-H dairy judging team in the state

(Continued on Page 9)

County Plowman Finishes Eighth

Lancaster County's plowing champion finished in eighth place in the state matches Thursday.

Frank N. Kocevar, Harris burg R1, last year's champion retained his crown in the contour division of the tilt. Level land competition trophy went to J. R. Mummert, a nineteen vear old Chambersburg farmer.

Richard Groff, Lititz R3, who took the Lancaster County championship last month, ran into some early difficulty by driving toward a boundry stake that had been moved and later had some trouble with a ditch in his plot. Lancaster County finished ninth in last year's state contest.

FIVE-DAY WEATHER FORECAST

Temperatures during the next five days are expected to average 2 to 6 degrees below the normal range of 62 at night to 83 in the afternoon. A slow rising trend in day to day temperatures at the beginning of the period will be followed by cooler about Sunday night Milder about next Wednesday. Precipitation may total more than 0.6 inch as showers develop late Saturday.