

OL. 9 NO. 6

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, January 11, 1964

PACKING APPLES FOR THE FARM SHOW this week kept Daniel A. At County Tobacco Show baker busy. Brubaker has exhibited at every Pennsylvania Farm Show since rubaker busy. Brubaker has exhibited at every Pennsylvania Farm Show since 39. This week he packed 25 bushels, 15 trays, 15 plates and 15 diamonds of pples in addition to exhibits of corn, wheat, barley, tobacco, honey, and five kinds R1. won four of the six classes res of tobacco on the shares. edible nuts.

Agri. Teachers Fo Apply For State Funds

Lancaster County Teachers Vocational Agriculture voted esday to apply for $2,000 m the state hainess racing nds for county Future Farmwork in the county.

group last November to forlate plans and apply for a e amount from the fund The Agriculture Teachers' tion came atten 21/2 months debate within the associa-(Continued on Page 12)

The annual FARM SHOW section will be found on pages 13 through 20 of this issue of Lancaster Farming. The section includes feature stories about the show, a story on Lancaster County's FFA Keystone Farmer Degree winners, and the complete Farm Show chedule. We suggest you lift the section out and take it to the Farm Show with you. Other regular features of Lancaster Farming will be found in their regular spots in the paper.

* The county 4-H clubs formed Fulton Grange To Ask State To Build Susquehanna Bridge

> Grange #66 has would shorten the route be-Fulton petitioned the Governor and tween Philadelphia and points were president, Harold Ends- Lancaster the State Highways Depart- west by some fifteen or dent J C Stahman, Lancaster Herr the 17 year old son of ment to construct a bridge twenty miles over an easy R6, and secretary, Marlin Cas- Mr and Mrs Harry G. Herr, is across the Susquehanna River teriain And in the southern part of Lan-WHEREAS, The State is in Grange at Oakryn, the follow- the site of said bridge and treasurer

Perennial Farm Show Winner Prepares Again

What would you do with 25, 15 diamonds of apples.

000 show ribbons' this many in his 24 years of ties of edible nuts. exhibiting at the Pennsylvania At the 1963 Farm Show, Farm Show and Fairs around Bridbaker's crop and fruit exthe state.

less resolved itself with ribbons and a host of lesser placings. going into a large box with Brubaker is not a large proroom enough on top for the ducer of apples by some meanew ones he hopes to win next sures, but he does have a large week at the 1964 edition of the number of flavors to choose big state show.

Brubaker spent most of this clude some 40 varieties

A consistant winner of rib-This is the problem facing bons with his apples, Brubaker Daniel A. Brubaker, Ephrata also shows corn, barley, wheat, R1, who estimates he has won tobacco, honey, and five varie-hibits won one purple ribbon, The problem has more or 10 blues, 17 reds, 13 whites, from His 200 apple trees in-week preparing and plicking He says he usually reserves the 25 bushels of apples he about two bushels of apples for plans to exhibit. In addition to each bushel he expects to exthe bushel packs, he will have hibit. "It depends on where about 15 plates, 15 trays and (Continued on Page 4)

Fisher Wins Four Classes

Farm Bureau Cooperative year. building, Lancaster.

Tobacco Ass'n Re-elects Three

County tobacco growers meeting Thursday at the Faim year

Re-elected at the meeting,

sel, Manheim R1 Leroy Funk, a junior vocational agriculture

Melvin S. Fisher, Strasburg Fisher, who farms eight ac-L. F. Photo. on his march to the champion- used a strain of Improved Hill ship in the Lancaster County Island and had "pretty good tobacco show Thursday at the rainfall" during the drought

> Fisher lost out only to Eugene M. Rohrer, also of Strasburg R1, who had the champ-10n filler hand, and Glenn B. Schultz, Pequea R1, who nosed out Frsher's binder entry in the "under 26 inches" class.

Schults finished third in the Bureau Cooperative, Lancaster, Future Farmers of America returned three of their four filler class behind Kenneth officers to the posts for another Martin, Denver R1, and Tilden Taylor, New Holland R1.

Champion of the FFA classes held in connection with the came from the wrapper class annual county tobacco show, and was shown by Donald low, Marietta R1, vice piesi- Herr 2125 South View Road,

Calendar

Cn. 11 — 2 pm. — Farm Women #7 meets in the Paradise Elementary School Members of society 11 to be Members of society 11 to be meuests.

n. 13 to 17 --- Pennsylvania State Farm Show, Cameron and McClay Streets, Harris-Bourg. Complete schedule on pages 13 to 18.

Jan. 13 - 7:30 p.m. - County Soil Conservation District Directors meet in the coult house, Lancaster.

Hall, Oakryn

ficers and planning for the rapid growth. And year.

perative building, Diller- And. elle Road, Lancaster.

caster and York Counties

ing resolution was adopted

WHEREAS, Thousands of dollars have been spent making a survey and preparing plans for a bridge across the Susquehanna River in the vicinity of Holtwood. And

WHEREAS, There is no bridge over the Susquehanna vice livestock climic for cattle River closer than twenty miles feeders will be held Jan. 30, in either direction. And point is of vital importance to erstown, Pa according to an 8 pm — Fulton Grange Our National Defense And #66 meets in the Grange that both southern Lancaster our National Defense And WHEREAS, It is recognized County Agent M M Smith County and southern York three evening classes scheduln. 16 - 7 30 pm - Man- County are developing very heim Young Farmers meet- rapidly both industrially and p m at weakly intervals ing in the Manheim Central economically and said bridge The chara Smith and High School Election of of- is vital to continuance of this is designed to cover all phases

WHEREAS, Said bridge

(Continued on Page 12)

Cattle Feeders Clinics Listed

A Cooperative Extension Ser- Ed Osborne Feb 6 and 13 in the Rohrers-WHEREAS, A bridge at this town elementary school, Rohrannouncement made today by

WHEREAS, It is only good of modern-day beef production, n. 18 — 12:30 p m. — Lan- business to build roads and including housing, feeding, caster County Pomona bridges before development general management, market-Grange installation of offi- reaches a point that would ing, health, investment, labor, cers at the Farm Bureau Co- seriously hinder such work, agricultural engineering and veterinary medicine.

(Continued on Page 12)

Washington Boro R1, was student at Lampeter-Strasburg the process of building a State elected to succeed Willis Hack- High School He has FFA pro-At the last meeting of the Park a few miles away from man Elizabethtown R3, as jects in corn and tobacco two acres of Pen-Bel 69, which

Henry B Engle, USDA to- averaged 2,450 pounds to the bacco researcher at the Penn- acre sylvania State Field Research Laboratory farm near Landis-

(Continued on Page 4)

Is Appointed To State ASC

Edison W Osborne, opeiator of a 500-acre dairy faim Each clinic will consist of in Fulton Twp, was appointed to the Pennsylvania Agiiculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee Thuisday The appointment was made by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L Freeman

Osborne, a Jersey breeder, succeeds Charles M. Long, Manheim R1, on the state ASC committee.

Osborne's 131-head Jersev

(Continued on Page 4)

Judges Raymond Erb, Manager of P. Lorillars Co., and Vincent Hurst, retired Manager of Bayuk Cigars, Inc, said the quality of the 195 entries in

(Continued on Page 8)

FIVE-DAY WEATHER FORECAST

Temperatures during the next five days are expected to average near the normal range of 24 at night to 39 in the afternoon. It will be cold Saturday and Tuesday and relatively mild at other times. Precipitation may total over a half inch (melted) falling as rain and snow about Sunday and part of Monday and again near the end of the period. 1.1 1 31