Gentlemen:

April 12 will mark one year that I began contract poultry raising with Indian River. I feel it quite in order to write a note of thanks to you for the part you played in helping me get started, as well as your many accommodations during the year.

Mr. Reynolds Minick arranged for the contractual relations with Indian River. He laid out the arrangement of my house, drew diagrams for the arrangement of my fountains, and even showed me how to fold the cardboard starting feeders! He carefully directed me into an efficient routine.

Noah Bahmatt was most courteous, considerate and helpful during the brief period he worked with me.

My dealings with Albert and Walter Landis and others in the office have been most satisfactory — several late calls for feed have been responded to promptly, with no quibbling.

Your drivers, too, have showed courtesy and clarity. Your organization, gentlemen, is not just a sales organization, it is a service organization in fact!

Sincerely,
John Myers

Every member of our Miller & Bushong family appreciates your unsolicited comments, Mr. Myers.

Thank You.
