

Vo-Ag Departments To Sponsor Mkt. Course

During March there will be a livestock marketing course offered by the Vocational Agriculture Departments of the following High Schools: Garden Spot, Lampeter Straburg, Manheim Central, Penn Manor, and Solanco. The six-meeting course is based around the buying and selling of beef. There will be two evening meetings and four afternoon meetings. Many resource persons from the livestock industry will be involved in this special course. A livestock marketing handbook will be given to all members and a diploma will be granted to persons attending all meetings of the course. The planned agenda for the course has five problem area questions which are as follows: (Continued on Page 4)

Dairy Day

The meeting is planned for the Guernsey Sales Pavilion, Lincoln Highway East, Lancaster.

The program will feature Dr. James Honan, general manager, Inter-state Milk Producers who will discuss "The milk marketing situation and milk control". Joe S. Taylor, chairman, Dairy Science Extension Section, Penn State will talk about "The problem of pesticide residues in milk", and "Dairy herd management ideas." Dairy extension specialist, Stephen B. Spencer, from Penn State will discuss "Milk handling problems", and "The present program to control pesticide residues".

A number of local dairy equipment dealers and suppliers plan to have exhibits and displays on hand for the dairymen's inspection.

Lunch will be available at a cost of $1.10 per person. Milk, ice-cream and cheese will be donated by the milk distributors and manufacturers of dairy products.

County Swine

Swine breeders are invited to contact Jim Martin, Christiana R1 (phone 529-2644) by March 8 if interested in entering this show. Entries must be in the 160-220 pound weight class.

Each exhibitor may enter one pig — barrow or gilt — with an entry fee of $1. If space permits, more than one entry per exhibitor may be accepted after March 8.

All entries will be judged on the hoof at the Stockyards. The hogs will be killed on Tuesday at the Kunzler & Co. packing house, and will be cut up for evaluation on Wednesday.

REELECTED TO A THREE-YEAR TERM AS STATE ABC DIRECTOR, Elvin Hess Jr., Strasburg R1, reviews ABC Annual Report with newly elected sires reporting committeemen for District 5. They are, left to right, Hess; Roy H. Book, Ronks R1, Holstein; Melvin R. Stoltzfus, Ronks R1, Guernsey; Robert W. Ulrich, Quarryville R1, Jersey; J. Cleon Huber, Lancaster R2, Ayrshire.

Exhibitors of the Champion and Reserve Champion carcasses will receive trophies. Also there will be cash prizes through the first ten places, as follows: 1—$10; 2—$8; 3—$6; 4-10, $5. During the live-evaluation the audience will have an opportunity to judge the animals. The scores that come closest to the actual evaluation figures will earn awards.

The yield results from the carcass show will be announced at the Swine Producers' Banquet at the Blue Ball Fire Hall on March 19. A baked ham supper, served family style, will begin at 6:30 p.m. Tickets for the banquet will be $2.50 for adults, and $1.25 for children.
