

THIS DIVERSION TERRACE PLANTED IN GRASS is an effective barrier to the flow of run-off water and protects the fields further down the slope. Diversion terraces are also used to direct the flow of water to waterways, which carries it safely away.

1964 District Financial Report

INCOME

Jan. 1, 1964 — cash on hand Jan 1, 1964 — Bonds on hand Interest on Bonds. County Commissioners Soil Stewardship literature Annual Meeting (Banquet Tickets)

Total Income

DISBURSEMENTS

Dues for 1964 a) Nationalb) State $ 100 00 Annual Meeting (Banquet) Secretarial expenses (stationery, phone, etc.) 216 40 Soil stewardship literature Treasurer's bond Watershed and other meetings County Plowing Contest
a) awaids and plaques b) entry and trucking Slides for 4-H Club work 16 80 Total Disbursements $1144 16

Balance Dec 31, 1964 Bonds on hand Dec. 31, 1964 2000.00 Balance on hand Dec. 31, 1964

DIVERSION TERRACES, like his one shown Wayne Maresch, county coner construction on a farm in the Pequea area, are servationist: becoming a major conservation tool with the aid of the heavy earth moving equipment now available.

Farmer Loans

rural people during 1964 mal farming operations. reached the highest loan volume in local history A total local office located at Lancas- water conservation measures ment. ter Purposes for which loan which are a must for the defunds were used included:

Operating loans — to reorganize farm business with essential equipment, better and operating expenses to both full time and part time farmers.

Farm Ownership loans — to buy, develop, enlarge farms, tershed organizations to cardebts and develop recreation enterprise buildings.

Ruial Housing loans ers, for the construction of munities.

Included an the above loans increasing velopment and efficient manresources, crucial in the sucborrowers are district cooperaloans are also available to wa- sistance to borrower families to families in rural areas and stall water supply systems for ter, Pa. small towns, as well as farm- farmers as well as rural com-

Soil Conservation

(Continued from Page 1) ner of the County contest for the second year and retained possession of the Plowman

Trophy for 1984. 8. Richard Groff was sponsored by the District in the State Plowing Contests, in which he placed fourth. 9. Four Watershed meetings were held during the fall. 10. The Districts helped sponsor a 4-H Conservation Club through the Extension Service and Associate Direc-

11. A District representative attended meetings of the Lancaster Co. Agriculture Council.

12. The District continued to help sponsor the Silt Sampling Station on the Cones-

13. The District aided in the Susquehanna River Basin

14. As a result of the Susquehanna River Basin Study, the District and cooperating Agencies met with some Borough Officials to discuss pos-61.00 sibilities of flood control in 750.00 their area.

2000.00

20.62 448 00

$3400 50

15. The District Cooperating Agencies helped put on six Conservation television programs.

16. Use of the film "Beyond Tomorrow," purchased by the District two years ago, is being used in schools, Young Farmer Programs, service clubs, etc

17 An Associate Director's meeting was held Farmer Cooperators now total 2,234

18 There were 72 new Cooperators signed during 1964 with acreage totaling 57747 acres

19 Held 12 regular monthly meetings Farmer Directors 256 34 Attendance again was 87.5%.

20. The District, in cooperation with Berks County Soil and Water Conservation District, erected a road sign between the Counties.

set of Conservation Slides for the 4-H Club work.

22. The District helped sponsor the Land Use and Management Contest for Vocational Agriculture Students.

SCS Reports On Year's Services

The Lancaster County Soil Conservation Work Unit of the USDA Soil Conservation Service completed the following work during the 1964 calendar year, according to

A new credit program has been established through the Economic Opportunity Act of and sanitary 1964 for low income families FHA Reports On decent, sate and samuary 1964 for low income ramines and farm service living in rural areas Loans are available to both farmers Emergency loans — to as- and other rural residents with Farmers Home Administra- sist farmers hard hit by incomes that are too low to tion services to farmers and drought to maintain their nor-cover basic needs and that have a reasonable prospect of their earnings to farmers were funds for the through a small amount of of $624,000 was loaned by the adoption of important soil and credit plus aid in manage-

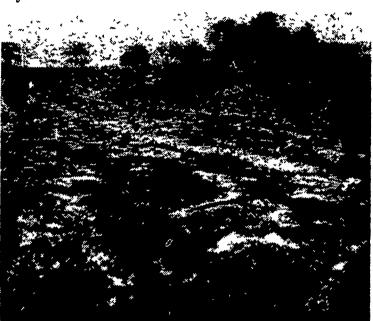

> The Farmers Home Administration was very happy to agement of land and water take part in a county wide tour this past year that ilcessful operation of farms, justrated soil and water con-Over 75% of farm ownership servation practices on farms. We would like to thank the local Soil Conservation Dis-Soil and water association trict Directors for their as-

> The Farmers Home Adminry out plans to protect, de-istration Office, serving Lanvelop and utilize the land and caster, Lebanon and Chester water resources in small wa- Counties is located in the tersheds and also loans to in- Post Office Building, Lancas-

> > Richard W Hoover County Supervisor

A GRASS WATERWAY, fed by a series of terraces, on a farm in the southwestern part of the county looked like this after experiencing a 6-inch rain in 10 hours. This illustrates the great carrying capacity of these waterways. This waterway is regularly out for EROSION caused by a 6-inch rain on a tobacco field on a farm in the New Danville area without the benefit of such conservation practices as diversion terraces or grass waterways.

Basic Plans — 76. Basic Plans Revised - 2. 21. The Directors purchased Farms Serviced - 1237. Farms Applying Practice

Consultive Services - 41. ACP Referrals — 111.

18,307 linear feet. Farm Ponds - 4. Strip Cropping - 1775 acres. Tile Drain - 42,181 linear feet. Open Drain - 2616 linear feet

Diversions and Terraces _ Tree Planting _ 32 acres.

* LIMITED TIME

SPECIAL OFFER! By International Stock Food Corp.

ISF "HAY-GUARD" ISF - Applicator dispenser Fits any type Baler — $32.00 Net delivered ISF "HAY-GUARD" ISF — Preserves Quality of Early Cut Hay & provides protection for baling at 25 — 30% moisture.

LIMITED SUPPLY

Moisture Testers - $39.95 Net. 100% Guarantee — Made in Germany

Don't Guess — Test

Your: Barley, Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Hay — Tobacco, etc.! ON THE FARM — WITHIN MINUTES.

For complete details: Write or phone collect -

Lancaster County

Manheim, Pa.

C. W. CASSEL P.O. Box 173 55 S. Grant St.

Lebanon County R. H. MILLER

Manheim, Pa.

ISF - Cattle-Special - Mar-O-Bone - Grow "Em" pellets - 17% Phosphorous Mix "Silo Guard" - "Hay-Guard" ISF — "Vealer Milk Replacer" — ISF

International Quality Products

Waverly, New York ~**************